Mrs. David Fletcher Martin

Couple Recite Vows at West Point Chapel

Miss Natalie Elizabeth Brundage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm F. Brundage of 10527 William Tell Lane, Columbia, Maryland, became the bride of Captain David Fletcher Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Martin, Jr., of 23 High Street, Monson, Massachusetts, Saturday, April 21, 1969 in the Chapel at West Point, N.Y.

The Rev. James Ford performed the ceremony before the altar decorated with purple and white flowers.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, selected a floor-length, princess style gown of Priscilla of Boston Ivory Satin, fashioned with a Cathedral train and trimmed with seed pearls. Her veil of ivory silk net was caught to a crown of matching seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Cymbidium, Freesia, and white Miniature Roses.

Mrs. Ronnie Meek, of 5410 Sanger Avenue, Alexandria, Va., sister of the bride, was Matron-of-Honor. She wore a full-length Lemon Chiffon gown, featuring a cowl collar and trimmed with lemon linen, with matching headpiece.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Martin of Radford College, Radford, Virginia and Miss Jill Martin of 23 High Street, Monson, Mass., sisters of the bridegroom. They wore identical gowns as the Matron-of-Honor, but in Ballet Blue and carried miniature Yellow Roses with Ivy.

Miss Kim Meek, niece of the bride was flower girl and Ken Meek, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Captain Robert Satter of Ft. Riley, Kansas, was best man. Ushers were Captain Steven Eisenberg of Seabright, New Jersey; Captain Ronnie Meek of Alexandria, Virginia, brother-in-law of the bride, Dick Anable of Albany, New York and Captain Jim Wheeler of Flushing, New York.

Mrs. Malcolm Brundage chose a pink lace gown over chignon, trimmed at the neckline and cuffs with seed pearls, for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a powder blue silk dress with matching coat.

A reception was held at the West Point Officers' Club at West Point, New York.

The bride had a wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride wore a beige linen dress with matching coat. Upon their return Capt. and Mrs. Martin will reside at Ft. Devens, Mass.

Mrs. Martin graduated from the Nuerbich American High School in Europe, and attended the University of Maryland. Captain Martin is a graduate of West Point and has just completed a tour in Vietnam.
