Dear Editor: With the primary election for County Legislature next Tuesday, the voting citizens of the Town of Andover are considering the candidates and viewing with some interest the proverbial mug shots which have appeared on many village light poles.

I would like to bring to the attention of your readers a candidate whose picture has not been posted, but who is probably one of the best qualified of the candidates. He is Mr. Orville W. Johnston, a resident of the Town of Alfred. I have known Mr. Johnston personally for quite some time, and I find it very inspiring to see a man of his calibre, very well qualified and with a genuine interest in the future of Allegany County, come forth. I know Mr. Johnston would serve as an outstanding Legislator if he is elected, and the citizens of Andover who are eligible to vote next Tuesday will be in a position to give Mr. Johnston the backing which he is worthy of. I, as a resident of the Village of Andover, feel you could not elect a finer candidate.
