Miss Lee G. Kessler Becomes Bride of Bruce C. Gridley

The Andover Presbyterian Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lee Gwendolyn Kessler and Bruce Coleman Gridley, Sunday, June 22 at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kessler of Elm Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gridley of Lake Bluff, Ill.

The Rev. William Semple of Canisteo and the Rev. Alan Minarick, Pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with baskets of white glads, mums and daisies and lighted tapers in candelabras. White satin bows decorated the pews. Mrs. Merle Treat of Nunda was soloist, accompanied by Miss Dianne Vars, Andover, the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length Victorian gown in A-line style with appliques of Alencon lace and seed pearls featuring Juliet sleeves and a full back panel that extended to a sweep train. Her veil of silk illusion, fell from a headpiece of seeded pearls. She carried a single white rose.

Miss Mary Ellen Smith, Rochester was maid-of-honor, wearing a Victorian A-line gown of Tahitian coral silk chiffon over linen, with stand-up collar and cuffs and back panel of matching satin, and matching picture hat. She carried a white fireside basket of roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Conde' of Horsereads, Miss Lynne Sootheran of Chicago, Ill., Miss Susan Baker of Greensburg, Pa., Miss Elaine Morgan of Bethel Park, Pa., and Miss Deana Kessler of Oswego, the bride's niece.

They wore Nile green and Tahitian coral gowns styled identically to that of the maid-of-honor, with matching picture hats and fireside baskets of roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Kelly and Kara Kessler, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Kessler of Woodcliff Lake, N. J., were flower girls for their aunt. They were attired in Nile and coral gowns, respectively, in miniature of the bridesmaids' gowns. Bruce Boak of Grove City, Pa., was best man. Ushers were James Kessler of Oswego, and Dr. Richard Kessler of Woodcliff Lake, brothers of the bride, and Dale Bax of Lake City, Pa., Claude Brandy of Cranford, N. J., and Neil Gridley of Lake Bluff, the bridegroom's brother.

Charles Kessler, nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kessler of Oswego.

The bride's mother selected a pastel pink A-line ensemble of re-embroidered lace over taffeta with beaded trim at the neckline, toque of pink net, and white accessories, with a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the bridegroom chose an A-line ensemble of chartreuse silk and wool with white hat and accessories and a white rose corsage.

Following the ceremony a buffet was served 175 guests at the Wellsville Country Club.

The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake with a miniature chapel and wedding bells, made by Mrs. Landis Kibbe of Andover. Miss Sheila Rourke and Mrs. Burdette Erickson of Silver Spring, Md., aunts of the bride, cut the cake.

Guests were present from Hammond, Short Hills, N. J., Union, N. J., Saltburg, Pa., and Grove City, Pa., Silver Spring, Md., East Aruora, Oswego, Nunda, Syracuse, Oatfield, Canaseraga, Wellsville and Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Gridley departed on a wedding trip to Canada.

The bride was graduated from Andover Central School and Grove City (Pa.) College, and is a candidate for a Master's Degree at the University of Wisconsin. She is an instructor of theater at Lincoln Land Community College, Springfield, Ill.

Mr. Gridley was graduated from Lake Forrest (Ill.) High School, and attended Grove City College. He is currently a senior at the University of Wisconsin, and a private in the U. Army Reserve.

Upon their return from Canada, the couple will reside in Madison, Wis. They will be at home in Springfield, Ill., after September.

Pre-nuptial affairs included showers given by Mrs. Charles Bauer of Oak Park, Ill.; Mrs. John Sacker-son of Lake Bluff, Ill.; by Miss Agnes Taylor, Miss Ruth Baker, Miss Ruby Jordan and Mrs. Ralph Schwarzenbach, all of Andover; by Mrs. Carl Burdick of Wellsville and by Miss Smith, Miss Conde' and Miss Sootheran.

Barry-Fox

Miss Deborah Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Fox of Andover, became the bride of Richard Barry of Westfield, N. Y., Saturday, June 14, 1969 at the Baptist Church. The Rev. Floyd Aldrich, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony. Cheryl Pelton presided at the organ, with Beverly Barnett at the piano. Connie Eldridge was soloist, all schoolmates of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a Empire waist-line styled gown with A-line skirt. The long tapered sleeves and bodice were made of lace decorated with seed pearls and the skirt was of white bridal satin with applied lace. Her chapel train of satin edged with lace, fell from the shoulders and her ballerina length veil was held by a queen's crown of pearls. She carried bouquet of pink sweetheart roses accepted with baby breath.

Miss Pamela Schrader of Andover, was maid-of-honor. She was attired in a pink floor length gown with Empire waist and A-line skirt with an overskirt. Her short pink illusion veil was held in place with pink flowers.

Robert Cleveland of Rochester, was best man. Ushers were James Fox, brother of the bride and Jean Barry of Westfield, brother of the bridegroom.

A lawn reception was held at the home of the bride's parents which included guests from Fillmore, Angelica, Westfield, Elmira, Rochester, Mayville and Andover.

After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Elmira, N. Y. The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and a student at Arnot-Odgen School of Nursing in Elmira, N. Y.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Westfield Academy Central and Alfred Agricultural and Technical College, this year, is employed at Hoffman's Nursery in Elmira, N. Y.
