

Allen - Hann

Miss Nancy Sharlene Hann and Albert Arthur Allen were united in marriage Saturday, July 26, 1969 in a double ring ceremony on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gerow of Meads Creek, Road, by the Rev. Leland Southard.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hann of 5 Fero Ave., Corning, N. Y., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Allen of Gorton Road, Corning, N. Y.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a street length gown of white lace over satin, with long sleeves, designed with a high collar and an Empire waistline. White shoes and wrist length gloves completed her ensemble. Her shoulder length veil fell from a pearl crown and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnation and deep pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Vickey Southard was maid-of-honor. She chose a aqua street length dress with white shoes and white wrist length gloves. Her headpiece consisted of a bow with matching veil. She wore a corsage of white sweetheart roses.

Michael McCarthy of Pritchard Ave., Corning, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white print dress with navy accessories and wore a corsage of white sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a yellow and white dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

A lawn reception was held immediately following the ceremony.

For going away, the bride wore a blue suit and a corsage of deep pink sweetheart roses. After a short trip to Niagara Falls and Canada the couple will reside at Andrews Trailer Court at Campbell, N. Y.

The bridegroom is employed at Stebbins Mobil Gas Station on Dennison Parkway in Corning.

4-H News

The Elm Valley Harvesters met at the home of James Haugh. There were seven members present and the meeting was called to order by President Dick Perkins.

We said the Pleague of Allegiance and had Roll Call. Members voted on selling flares if the 4-H Office approves.

We appointed a committee to figure out a float for the 4th of July Parade. We had slides about Judging and Showing Dairy Cattle.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Ronald Freeman and discussion about showing vegetables at fairs will be held.

The Elm Valley Harvesters met at the home of Ronald Freeman. Vice-President David Haugh called the meeting to order. We had the salute to the Flag and Roll Call. Eight members were present. The minutes were read and approved.

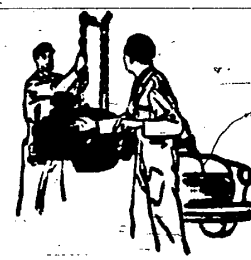

In the News Reporter Contest, the News Reporter of our Club had 215 points. In the Secretary's Contest, the Secretary of our Club had 120. We were successful in putting a float in the 4th of July Parade and also received permission to sell flares.

The motion was made by Bob that we pay a dime dues until we get the flares to sell.

Several members went to "Know Your Trees" and a garden meeting. "Know Your Trees" was conducted by David Strout, a graduate of Syracuse State College of Forestry. The garden meeting was conducted by Mrs. McNinch and helped by three young men.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Daniel Perkins. David Haugh will give a lesson on "Handyman". Brenda Haugh, News Reporter
