FIRE HURTS

The 1969 "Fire Prevention Week" runs from October 5 - 11. During this time people throughout the country should recheck their electrical outlets for overloading, replace worn or frayed wire coverings and remove any defective parts from fuse boxes.

Fire is one of the main causes of death. The most commonly known causes of fires are: defective electrical cooking utensils, combustibles near heaters, smoking in bed, piles of rubbish open flames and sparks, children and matches, lightning, spontaneous combustion, and power consuming appliances.

Do everything you can to prevent fires. Detection Now could save you or your children's lives tomorrow.

THE NEWSPAPER

The newspaper. What is it? What is its value and how much do we use it? To the average person, these sound like very foolish questions. Everybody knows what a newspaper is and what it's for.

Made from a fragile material the newspaper is not very durable. If left in the ordinary air under ordinary conditions, the newspaper would deteriorate within a few years.

Newspapers provide the modern man with an up-to-date knowledge of what is going on in the world. It is almost an American custom to read the newspaper every day, either in the morning or at night.

Newspapers also provide us with facts and figures from the past. A newspaper saved from an historic incident brings back memories when read in future years.

October 5 - October 11 - is National Newspaper Week. It's time to really think about how much newspapers do for us.

Senior Interview

by Patty Dibble

A member of the graduating class of 1970, interviewed this week, is Candace Ann Elizabeth Congelli. Candy was born September 23, 1952 and she is the daughter of Mrs. Lasca Congelli.

Candy has been very active all through her four years of high school. Among her activities are: F.H.A., four years; Hi-Herald, four years; Library Council, two years; Red Cross, four years and she has been a member of the Color Guards for two years.

Among her hobbies are: horse back riding and baby sitting.

Senior Interview

by Kathy Gavin

What were you doing on January 14, 1951? One of this year's Seniors, namely Samuel (Sam) Willis Clarke was born on this day.

Sam has attended A. C. S. for all twelve years of school. He is majoring in Trade Electricity at Belmont. Sam is planning to further his education in the field of electronics.

Sam also played the policeman in the Junior Play. His hobbies are hunting and camping.

Purple And White

Andover had two wins in a row against Scio and Jasper last week. The game with Alfred-Almond was postponed due to rain.

The win at Scio was the Panther's second league game of the season. Both of Andover's goals were put in by Jim MacMichael. The final score was Andover 2 - Scio 1.

Andover met Jasper on the home field and won 1 - 0 over the visiting squad. This loss ended Jasper's four game winning streak and brought the Panthers overall record to three and one, three wins and one loss.

Games are scheduled with Fillmore (Oct. 7) and Friendship (Oct. 9). The game with Fillmore may well be a turning point for Andover because both clubs are 2 - 0 in the league.

The next week two home games will be played with Greenwood (Oct. 14) and Scio (Oct. 16). Drive up to the school and support the team.

Roving Reporter

by Charlene McCormick

This week the Roving Reporter asked the students at A.C.S. what the meaning of the word "wowsers" was. Here are the meanings they gave.

Brian Lynch - it's a dog that wakes you up in the morning
Candy Harvey - It's an old bum

Danny Grant - a reaction
Connie Baker - some relation
Sheila Briggs - little dirty dog

Sharon Lewis - something a child plays with John Hyland - another Mike Jackson

Voni Mattison - a new kind of socks
Jesse Grossman - someone who drinks a lot

Julie Brown - someone who wows

Although there were many good guesses, the meaning of "wowsers" is one who is opposed to Sunday amusements such as sports.

Students To Attend School One Half Day October 15

The students of Andover Central School will attend a morning session only on Wednesday, October 15. School will close at the end of the fourth period at 11:45 and all students, K - 12, will return home.

The faculty will remain at school to complete forms for the Basic Education Data System. This data, needed by the Education Department, supplies information for use in schools; in the education department, in the legislature and in educational research.

New Teacher

by Julie Brown

The spotlight for new teachers falls this week on Victoria Balding, our Spanish teacher. Mrs. Balding was born in Norwich, New York. She attended Utica Free Academy during her high school years, and then attended Alfred University. Mrs. Balding decided to teach Spanish because "many countries speak Spanish and so it is better to know at this time".

Some of Mrs. Balding's hobbies are: reading, sewing, football, and music. She and her husband are now residing in Andover.

Keep On Buying Savings Bonds

Senior News

by Kathy Gorsuch

The Senior class would like to thank everyone for coming to the Senior Banquet. We would especially like to thank and appreciate to the people whom we could not serve.

Now that the Magazine Sales have been completed, we also want to thank the people who bought magazines. This is one of our best money-making projects this year and we appreciate your patronage.
