ACESA To Meet At Fillmore October 20

Thirty-five members of the Allegany County Educational Secretaries Association met Monday evening, September 22 at the State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred, New York.

The gourmet dinner, prepared by the Ag Tech Dining Room Division, was followed by a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Anthony Vasile, president. Mrs. Vasile designated Mrs. Phyllis Sherwood, Friendship Central School, to be the Allegany County delegate to the advisory council meeting at the 5th Annual Conference of NYSESA on October 3 at the Hotel Syracuse. For comparison last year 15 secretaries represented Allegany County at the New York State Educational Secretaries Association Conference, while only five will be attending this year.

Following their meeting the secretaries were taken on an instructional tour of the Computer Center at Ag-Tech, conducted by Mr. William Cregan, Chairman of Data Processing.

The evening's program was planned by the Alfred-Almond School secretaries.

The next meeting of ACESA will be held at Fillmore Central School on Monday, October 20 at 7:30 p. m. Workshop reports will be given by the secretaries attending the State Conference at Syracuse, N. Y.
