News That's Print To Fit

Well Folks, now we have a new one! Are you a business executive? Well if so, you have just been selected to be put on a choice mailing list to receive "Look", and a whole string of magazines — FREE OF CHARGE! This is because the magazines want their ads to go into the homes of you business executives. Etc., etc., etc., and so forth!

All you have to do is agree to pay the mailing costs which only comes to 57c a week — you surely agree that this is a wonderful offer don't you?

Question by business executive: "Is this a recording?" Answer: "No." Response: "Don't bother to send anything." Click! The long distance phone connection goes dead. End of Drama!

Incidentally readers — did you do a quick job of figuring the way we did? If so, you found out that the "mailing costs" figures out to be $29.64 per year. How about that? For that amount you can select a bunch of magazines of your own choice from the Senior Class that is selling subscriptions to raise money for their Senior trip — and maybe save a few $$$ besides.

That "something for nothing gimmick" usually has hidden teeth somewhere in the deal — so, if you are fortunate enough to be selected to receive this "offer" — you can at least consider yourself "warned".

However, if you unthinkingly answered yes, we don't imagine that a verbal consent over the phone is too binding legally — as they didn't call us "person-to-person", and if you refuse to accept delivery of their merchandise — what can be done? Any answers?

While speaking to businessmen, did you read in one of the Buffalo Daily Newspapers on Monday, October 6th, the comments made by a businessman from Lake View N. Y., about a notice he received from the Division of Industrial Safety Service, State Department of Labor, that: "effective Oct. 1 the fee for inspection of place of public assembly or of a boiler is due and payable within 30 days of notice. Unless such fee is paid within 30 days of that date, an additional amount equal to THREE TIMES THE FEE BECOMES DUE AND PAYABLE". The notice cites this example "If an inspection fee of $10 is not paid within 30 days, an amount of $40 becomes due and payable."

The comments of the writer goes on to say: "The notice left me abashed. I've heard of 'big brother' but this is going too far. Since when can the almighty state dictate such provisions?"

If private industry, a grocer, a doctor, or what have you, sent such an enclosure in their bill, there would be a Congressional investigation. How long before we hear poundings on our door in the dead of night and be dragged off for interrogation?"

Ed. Note: — How about it folks? Isn't it beginning to be "later than we think"?

Something else that really bugged us was this "Demonstration for Peace" that was conducted by many students across the nation — along with College Professors and Politicians.

How many of you folks signed the petitions circulated by the College Students that made a house-to-house canvass yesterday? Did they explain what was really behind this move? Did they say WHO was behind this move?

Stop and think a moment or two! Do College Students have that kind of money to spend on getting these petitions made up and printed? Who will benefit the most by this demonstration?

Surely when Hanoi comes out to endorse this peace movement — it doesn't leave much to the imagination!

All the Viet-Cong has to do is sit on their hands at the peace

Wilmer Charles Atwell

Wilmer Charles Atwell, Water St., Andover, died Saturday, October 11, 1969 in the Jones Memorial Hospital after a long illness. He had been a resident of Andover for the past 30 years.

talks in Paris — and wait for you people to hand them the Country of South Vietnam on a "Silver platter".

What we can't understand is why intelligent people can't see that this is a direct form of "aiding and abetting the Communist Enemy" — and that this is what appears to be behind the move that is more than likely masterminded by Communist thinking leaders!

And, if the people that did sign these petitions should end up on the free mailing list of Communist inspired propaganda — don't be surprised! You read it here first — in this column!

Meanwhile, back to the ranch — on the home front — how many of you Andover residents realize that there is a Village Ordinance against the burning of leaves, trash, or anything on, or along Village Streets?

Well, as we recall, it "shonuff" is the facts maa'm — just the facts! It seems that fire burns the oil out of the asphalt paving thereby destroying it — and after the Village has spent thousands of dollars in re-surfacing many of the Streets — well it kinda looks as if all of we taxpayers had better pay attention to save us more money! 10-4?

NOTICE

The Village of Andover Street Department will begin picking up leaves along Village Streets on Monday.

Residents are also reminded that it is illegal to burn leaves, on or along, Village Streets.

This does not stop Village Residents from burning leaves on their own property as long as proper precautions are taken to prevent fires.

Northern Zone Party Permits Extended 4 Days

Deer hunters in New York State got some good news today from the Conservation Department. There will be an additional four-day filing period for party permits in the Northern Zone (Adirondacks). This unusual step is being taken, according to a Division of Fish and Wildlife spokesman, in order to allow filing of all party permit quotas.

The Department had announced last week that party permit applicants who were not selected by computer would be given an opportunity to re-apply for one of the party permit areas which was undersubscribed. These parties will have first choice at the unfilled quotas and their amended party permit applications must be postmarked no earlier than October 14 and no later than October 17. Details of the procedure for reapplication were mailed to those parties eligible to reapply.

Other hunters who either did not submit a party permit application or whose applications were returned because they failed to meet the original September 20 postmark deadline date, may now apply for a two-member party permit for one of five Adirondack areas still open. The quota shown is what remained after the original party permit filing period ended.

The areas to be opened to the general public are as follows:

Area A. — portions of Essex, Franklin and Hamilton Counties — 1,730 permits.

Area B. — portions of Fulton, Hamilton, Herkimer, Saratoga and Warren Counties, including the Moose River Area — 1,596 permits.

Area C. — portions of Franklin, Hamilton, Herkimer, Lewis, Oneida and St. Lawrence Counties — 3,895 permits.

Area M. — portions of Franklin and St. Lawrence Counties — 4,006 permits.

Area P. — portion of Clinton County.

The procedure for those party permit applications is the same as before for the original filing of party permit stubs, which come with the big game license, must be submitted for both members of the party along with a completed application form (available at all regional Fish and Wildlife offices as well as at many license-issuing agencies). The party permits fee of $5 may be submitted in the form of cash, check or money order. Unsuccessful applicants will receive refund.

Parties that were notified that their application was not selected by the computer for their original area choice may reapply for one of the Adirondack areas either in the original party size or in smaller two-man parties. If their original party is split up into two two-man parties, they must submit another $5 fee to pay for the second party.

Remember the required postmark dates. For those parties not selected by computer: no earlier than October 14 and no later than October 17. For the general public: no earlier than October 18 and no later than October 21. Party permits will be assigned on the basis of the earliest postmark within these periods, so it is advised to make application as soon as possible during the eligible period. This early submission should also make it possible for party leaders to receive the permits in time for the October 25 season opening.

WCS Notice

The October meeting of the WCS will be held at the Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, October 21st.
