Work started Monday on the addition of a second dining room a banquet hall and a cocktail lounge to the Big Elms Restaurant at 196 Seneca St in Hornell. The new facilities, to be decorated in the style of the Victorian era would be ready for use by June 1 said George Fawcett, owner. The two story addition will include restroom facilities and lounges also in line with the expanded service area, kitchen facilities will be enlarged. The banquet hall will be on the second floor, while the dining room and cocktail lounge will be downstairs. The addition will extend from the south side of the building. Its exterior will follow the same design as the present. Mr. Fawcett says the present dining and counters area will remain as they are, with the same menu and price range. The menu in the new section will be different from the one now offered.

Appreciation

I would like to express my appreciation to my friends for the cards, gifts and visitations received while I was a patient in the hospital.
