FUTURE

The word "future", a small six-letter word meaning that which is to come, plays a strange and vital part in our lives.

The future is what keeps man guessing. He never knows his future from moment to moment or from year to year.

To some extent, the future can be predicted. For example, we know that the sun will rise tomorrow morning and we know there are four seasons in each year which arrange themselves periodically.

It's rather frightening when you think about it. If you really take it seriously, you can't even plan for tomorrow.

Picture a group of small children going from door to door in Halloween costumes depicting witches, goblins, ghosts, and all the Disneyland characters such as Mickey Mouse, and Donald Duck.

Now, a change of scene. The back alleyway of a tenant apartment building in Harlem, garbage lying in the street, rats running past small children who sit on a cement block used for a step.

New Teacher

by Eileen Atwell

The new teacher being introduced this week was born on December 30, 1945. His name is J. Stephen Paul.

His hobbies are collecting antique cars and he also has a gun collection. Among his historical collections are a 1953 MG sports car and a model T Ford.

Mr. Paul is married and has one son, a year old. They reside in Geneseo. Unfortunately he will only be with us for another month because he will start serving with the Army on December 8.

P. S. A. T.

by Danny Slade

On Saturday, October 25, the members of the Junior Class took the P.S.A.T. or Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Purple And White

by Jim Howland

Three wins in a row during the last week of the season put Andover in position for a shot at the number one berth in Class C.

Monday, October 20, the Andover soccer squad went to Alfred-Almond to defeat the winless team 2 - 1.

On Wednesday, October 22 Andover again defeated Alfred-Almond. This game was supposed to have been played earlier, but had to be postponed because of rain.

Undefeated Fillmore came to Andover Thursday and was beaten for the first time this year. Fillmore, the first place team, has a total of twelve points.

Regardless of the outcome of the Scio-Fillmore game Andover will play in the Sectionals Friday, October 31.

Senior Play

by Howard Freeland

The Seniors are very busy with play rehearsals for "I Remember Mama," by John Van Druten. This delightful play will be presented on Friday, November 14 in the school auditorium.

Not only are the Seniors busy rehearsing, but also they are selling tickets for the play. The prices are as follows: children 50c; adults 75c and reserved seats $1.00.

Buy a ticket - support the Class of '70 and treat yourself to an enjoyable evening.

Hospital Volunteer Training Classes

by Jane Day

A hospital training course is held at the Wellsville Hospital for all students, who are at least freshmen, in the area.

This course introduces the youth to medical careers, teaches them the skills of being a volunteer and gives them the satisfaction of serving others.

Those participating in this will become Junior Hospital Volunteers at the end of the month, and have agreed to work at least two hours every week.

F.H.A. Dance

On Friday, November 7, 1969 the F.H.A. will sponsor a dance from 9 to 12. A very popular local group, the "Grim Repercussion," will fill our gym with their great music.

Senior Interview

by Debbie Nichols

This week's senior interview is on a Cancer, according to astrology. He is majoring in business and before he came to Andover, he attended Scio Central School.

His activities include volleyball, three years; baseball, three years; basketball, four years; soccer four years (including the year we were County Champions); and Varsity Club, four years.

On June 30, 1952, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fanton gave Coy, Sandy and Connie, a brother. They named him John Henry Fanton.
