Local Church To Hold Special Three Day Series Of Meetings

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church on Rochambeau Avenue is to hold a special three day series of meetings Friday through Sunday. The speaker will be Rev. W. Emerson Ackerman of Rome, N. Y. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 and the Sunday meetings will be at 11:00 A. M. and 8:00 P. M.

Friday night service will be a special "Family Night" with an award being given to the largest family in attendance. Saturday will be a special "Youth Night" with the young people of the church taking part. There will be a meeting of the women of the church on Saturday afternoon at 3:00 with Mrs. Ackerman as the speaker. Mrs. Ackerman is the district president of the women's organization of the Alliance.

Mr. Ackerman was a former businessman. He studied at New York University and spent four years in the U. S. Air Force during the second World War. Upon his release from the service, he entered Nyack Missionary College and graduated with a Bachelor of Theology Degree in 1951. He served as pastor in The Christian and Missionary Alliance in Nyack Center, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Morristown, N. J. He has served as District Superintendent of the Northeastern District of The Christian and Missionary Alliance since 1963.

The Ackermans have recently moved to the new District parsonage in Rome, N. Y. They have three children, Thomas, a student at Latourneaus College in Longview, Texas; Caroline (Mrs. Caroline Gilbert), a senior at Houghton College; and Elizabeth, at home who is attending Rome Free Academy.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these services.
