

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Miss Janet F. Harkensider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett J. Harkensider of Roxville, recently completed requirements for her master of science degree from Cornell University. She has attended Cornell since September, 1968 and she majored in science education and minored in general biology. Her master's thesis concerned teaching heredity to elementary school students. While at Cornell, she has been author of one publication and co-author of another publication of the Cornell Science Leaflet.

Stewart County Class D Basketball season opens December 5. Milton Van Hagan, Coach, has announced the schedule as follows: Dec. 5, Jasper at Greenwood; Dec. 12, Greenwood at Cohocton; Dec. 19, Savona at Greenwood; Jan. 9, by Jan 16, Greenwood at Bradford; Jan 20, Troupsburg at Greenwood; Jan. 23, Frattsburg at Greenwood; Jan. 30, Greenwood at Jasper; Feb. 6, Cohocton at Greenwood; Feb. 13, Greenwood at Savona; Feb. 20, by Feb. 27, Bradford at Greenwood; March 3, Greenwood at Troupsburg.

The Music Department presented a Fall Concert at the School Friday night under the direction of Mrs. June Rollins. Steve Harkensider announced the program. The Girls' Choir of thirty-eight from seventh through twelve, sang "I'll Walk With God", by Brodsky; "You'll Never Walk Alone"; "Around the World", by Stikies and "The Impossible Dream", by Frank. Mrs. Martinez, English and Spanish Teacher, was the accompanist. The Junior Ensemble of nine girls, sang, "My Happiness", by Stikies; "Yellow Bird", by Frank and "All Night, All Day" Spiritual. A vocal Duet, "There is Nothin' Like a Dame", by Rodgers and Hammerstein, was sung by Starla Jackson and Ann McCormick, in Navy Blues.

The Senior Ensemble, nine girls, sang, "Theme From a Summer Place", by Gordon and "Green Leaves", by Wiston. The Junior Band of thirty-eight from Grades 4-7, played, "Duet Waltz"; "America"; "Make Believe Waltz" by Douglas and "Little Brown Jug", by Reynolds. The Senior Band played the first concert wearing the new uniforms. The Senior Band numbers were: "Appalachian Fantasy", "Below Galilee", "Old Smoky", "Sugar Lump" by Gordon, "Tutti Fluti" by Fota featured Wanda Bise, Cindy Denison, Eileen McCormick, Ramona Ellis and Lauren O'Brien; "Chorale For Brass", by Morrissey; "Do-Re-Mi", by Warrington. "The Waltzing Gracie", by Conley, featuring Baritone and Trombones. Betty Burley and Karen Smith of the Girls' Choir, presented corsages to Mrs. Rollins and Mrs. Martinez. Connie Fisher assisted by Mrs. York, presented a corsage to Mrs. Rollins from the Junior Band. Band members worked at a Bake Sale after the Concert.

A Spaghetti Supper was served at the School Cafeteria Monday, November 17 from 5 P. M. to 7 P. M. The dinner was sponsored by G.C.S. Yearbook Staff and Advisor, Ronald Edgington.

Mr. Louis Salen, Supervising Principal of Lyndonville Central School, Mrs. Salen and two daughter, Louann and Lisa and Miss Erika Lang, an Exchange Student from Austria, who is living with the Salens for a year, also Ed Thering of Alfred Tech were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Rogers and Jerome Tuesday. The Salen family are former Greenwood residents and Mr. Salen taught at Greenwood Central School.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond of West Greenwood, attended the Hornell Symphony Concert with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Redmond of Hornell, at the Hornell

Wallace and Mrs. Howard Saxton of Whitesville went to Rochester last Monday and called at the Strong Memorial Hospital to see their niece, Mrs. Streb and son and Miss Roosa from Arkport. Clarence Webster went with them and called on Mrs. Elva Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hartwig and Mrs. Sally Bassett called on Mrs. Elva Sherman at the Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester, Tuesday. Michael also called on his grandmother at the hospital.

Albert Lamphier came home from Arnot-Ogden Hospital in Elmira, Tuesday and is much improved.

Rev. John Harrison entered the Jones Memorial Hospital in Wellsville last Sunday for a week of tests and medical treatment. His mother, Mrs. George Harrison, has been sick at home for nearly a month.

Raymond Barnhart entered the St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, Tuesday for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fletcher (nee Whittell) of the Jasper Road, are parents of a daughter, born November 10, 1969 at the Bethesda Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fletcher of the Jasper Road are the paternal grandparents.

Mrs. Bernice Osmin took Mrs. Daisy Teribury and Mrs. Cora Heckman to Rochester Friday to see their sister, Mrs. Elva Sherman at the Strong Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. William McDonough and Mrs. M. P. Wheeler entertained at the McDonough home Wednesday night in honor of the birthday of Francis Acker. Others attending were Mr. McDonough, Miss Sabrey Stephens and Miss Grace Young. Mrs. James Smith and Mrs. Ben Smith and son, James Francis also called in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas York and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York attended the BOCES Open House at the Campus in Hornell Thursday night. Carlton Cornell and Tom York are taking Electronics at BOCES Campus of Vocational Training.

Ronald Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greene, left Monday November 17 for Camp May, New Jersey to begin training in the Coast Guard. He enlisted in September.

Congratulations to Miss Arlene Krusen, member of G.C.S. Senior Class, who was chosen to receive the Annual DAR Good Citizen Award presented to Senior girls by the Kanestee Valley Chapter DAR. Arlene is the Senior Class President and Co-Editor of the Yearbook, active in chorus, cheerleading and Color Guard. She was Junior Class President and Class Secretary two years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Krusen and plans to be a dental hygienist. She was chosen by her classmates and faculty on four qualifications: service, dependability, leadership and patriotism.

Mrs. Daniel Redmond attended the Fortnightly program at the Columbian School in Hornell Thursday night.

A Junior - Senior High School Assembly sponsored by General Motors Corporation, will be given at Greenwood Central School on Wednesday, November 19 at 10 A. M. It is being given in 11 area schools. "Previews of Progress" is the title of the show of nine scientific research demonstrations. They focus on gas turbine engines, fuel cells and solar cells.

Greenwood Central School was closed Monday for the first day of Deer Hunting. School will close Tuesday-night next week for the Thanksgiving Vacation, November 26 - Dec. 1.

The Greenwood Hotel is doing a good business for the hunting season. Many local families are also boarding hunters. Campers are seen on the side roads. Town Clerk, Marjorie York, reports that she had sold 212 Resident Deer Licenses and 20 Non-Resident Licenses as of Monday morning. She could have sold more non-resident licenses as all area TC were out.

Mrs. Lawrence Greene entertained Sunday at a Farewell Dinner for her grandson, Ronald Greene, who left Monday for service in the Coast Guard. Guests were Mrs. Irene Zeltwanger, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Whiting of Canisteo, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Greene, Miss Sandra Greene and Ronald. The Greenwood Central School Band is sponsoring a Dance at the School Tuesday night, November 25th.

Kathy Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murray of Andover spent last Sunday to Tuesday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duke went to Syracuse Wednesday afternoon and attended the funeral of his aunt on Thursday. Staff Sgt. Stanley Murray, Jr. of Bedford AFB, Mass., was home for the week-end with his family and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoagland had an Auction Saturday P. M. of farm equipment, sheep and some household items. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephens assisted them. Douglas Sherer of Oregon District was the Auctioneer. There was a good crowd and Mr. Hoagland was satisfied with the result of the sale.

Virgil Hussey was the Lay Leader at the Sunday Worship Service at the United Methodist Church. Clinton York led the responsive reading and Robert Hoagland gave the Prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillman of Ransomville came Saturday to spend several days during hunting season with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Murray. A family Sunday dinner was also held in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Hillman. Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hawkins and son of Bath, Mr. and Mrs. John Murray and family of Andover, Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Stanley Murray, Jr., and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Coates and sons and Mrs. William Schwartz.

Kelley - She

Miss Tracy Shepar C. Kelley, Jr., were united in marriage Saturday, October 18 in the Christian Ter ville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shepar of Hornell and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. of Wellsville RD 3.

The Rev. Paul C. performed the double ceremony at 1 p. m., before decorated with basket white and pink pomps Aldrich of Wellsville, ist.

Given in marriage by the bride wore an ivory gown of chantilly lace empire waistline. Imported illusion fell er petal headpiece pearls. She carried a bouquet of white car detachable corsage of heart roses and lily's

Mrs. Joan Dunning sister of the bride, of-honor. She selected gown of chiffon in-can long Juliet sleeves streamer headpiece. Bouquet of pink carnations Rebecca Kelley, sister groom, wore a gown honor attendant's in green. Her petal head ed her gown and she c quet of green carnati

Alan Kelley of Ro best man for his brot were Robert Fanton and David Peckham.

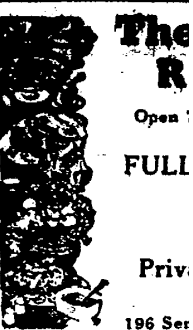

Mrs. Shepard wo bonded wool suit and white carnations. groom's mother wore ed wool dress with nation corsage.

Following the cere

Mrs. J. H. Goodno day dinner guest of Daniel Redmond.

The Birmingham-I can Legion Auxiliary Legion Post Tuesday November meeting. Bernice Osmin was the meeting. Plans v hold a Ham Dinner a Post this Saturday, beginning at 6 P. M. lic. Mrs. Osmin and Smith of Canisteo are The Legion will have turkey party Saturd was reported that Jennie Downey and min attended the Cou Meeting at the Can November 6. Refres served.

Mrs. George Harr the Jones Memorial Wellsville, Sunday.

ALBANY

at the home of Mrs. John Briggs Lewis Hitchcock, are passing a his old home-ry, Pa. ok, who teaches spent the week-ents, Mr. and of the Alfred iggs and three ver were week- and Mrs. Carl erty came to amanca the first e for his father. , who has been eaks and also to e garage. E. Brown left enroute to Calif- y expect to re- weeks before go- the remainder rnest Higby mon- day to pass the . Mr. and Mrs. companied them of Mr. and Mrs. at village. Whitcomb of Bel- est at the home Ames and E. P. going to Corn- make her home- ar, Mrs. Hugh ce. A. Potter were unday and Mon- and Mrs. G. W. nb left Monday ity, enroute to nter. down from Buf- irst of the week friends and rel-

C. M. Crandall of Independence, Mrs. John Illig returned to her home in Independence Saturday from a two weeks visit with her sister in Patterson, N. J., and attended the World's Fair.

Carl Clarke of Independence was in Syracuse Monday and Tuesday, attending a director's meeting of the G.L.P. Others attending the meeting from this area were: Curtis Burdick, Floyd Pease, William Joyce, Erwin Lewis and Clifford Burdick.

Mrs. Shirley Evans and son of Freemont have returned home after spending the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mullen of West Greenwood.

Mrs. Cowles Whiting passed Wednesday and Thursday with her sister, Mrs. James Rewalt at Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Gillfillan left Andover Wednesday for a two weeks business trip to Maryland and West Virginia.

F. S. Clark and Mrs. Anna Benjamin left Andover Wednesday by motor for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will spend the winter.

Howard Hann of Mt. Carmel, Pa., was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hann and other Andover relatives from Thursday until Monday.

Mrs. Lillian Sutton returned to her home Saturday from several weeks passed at the home of her son in Alfred.

Miss Margaret VanSkiver of Alfred, was the guest of Miss Wilma Goodridge from Friday until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wagner of Hornell are spending some time with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hann.

Mrs. Dan Appier and Miss Nora McAndrew spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. James O'Boyle at Belfast.

Miss Mary Teresa Burns returned to Geneseo Sunday after passing several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burns.

Mrs. Marshall Earley and family of Hartford, Conn., have been visiting Andover relatives this week.

3, 1939 Son, Publishers

ady, 81, died at e Street, Friday; brother survives.

Frank Cornelius nship, celebrated ling anniversaryuesday evening y seventy guests

e Rennells of lp R. Norton of ited in marriage umber 1st.

uman Dodge of ents of a son, born Thursday, ullen of Slate ay of red rug- own Mr. W- all of Canisteo, e days with and Mrs.

REMEMBER THOSE YOU LOVED WITH A MEMORIAL GIFT TO THE AMERICAN SOCIETY

"HOME" Sick? A LITTLE T.L.C. (Tender Loving Care) Will Improve It's Outlook! HOME REPAIR CO. Jack Eberle Andover Phone: 478-4063

The R Open FULL Priv 196 Ser