Bauer - Harkenrider

The papal blessing was bestowed on Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Bauer following their marriage at 11 a. m., Saturday, November 29, 1969 in St. Mary's Church at Rexville. The bride is the former Janet F. Harkenrider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett J. Harkenrider of Rexville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Bauer of Hamburg, N. Y.

The Rev. Otto J. Vogt, pastor at Rexville, performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. The altars were decorated with vases of yellow roses and yellow and white Fuji mums. Wedding music was played by the organist, Miss Vicki Smith of Hornell and altar boys were Stephen Harkenrider of Rexville, cousin of the bride and Patrick Dempsey of Greenwood.

Miss Mary Lou Harkenrider of Rexville was maid-of-honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Sharon Herrick of Big Flats, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. John Miller of Avoca. Miss Diane Beahr of Hamburg, niece of the groom, was flower girl.

Best man was William Bauer of Hamburg, brother of the groom. Ushers were Michael Harkenrider of Rexville, cousin of the bride, and Joseph Staahl of Conneaut Lake, Pa. Scott Dole of Boston, N. Y., nephew of the groom, was ring-bearer.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white velvet fashioned in an A-line manner with a portrait neckline. Small velvet buttons at the wrists of the long tapered sleeves matched those on the back of the gown. A detachable cathedral length train accented the back of the gown. A white velvet Dior bow topped the cathedral length silk illusion veil. The bride carried an arm bouquet of one dozen long-stemmed white tea roses tied with long white velvet streamers.

The maid-of-honor wore a floor length gown of chocolate brown velvet and beige crepe fashioned in an empire design. The empire bodice was brown and the skirt was beige. Her headpiece was a matching chocolate brown velvet Dior bow and veil. She carried an arm bouquet of long-stemmed yellow tea roses tied with yellow velvet streamers.

The bridesmaids and flower girl wore gowns of cinnamon velvet and beige crepe. The empire bodice was of cinnamon velvet and the skirt of beige crepe. They wore headpieces of cinnamon velvet Dior bows and veils. The bridesmaids carried arm bouquets of long-stemmed yellow tea roses tied with yellow velvet streamers. The flower girl carried one long-stemmed yellow rose tied with a yellow velvet streamer.

A reception dinner was held for approximately 100 guests at the Hornell Country Club. The bridal table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake.

For a wedding trip to Bermuda, the bride selected an ivory knit suit with a brown trim and brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Following the trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside at 1044 Liberty Street, Meadville, Pa.
