Annual Meeting To Be Held By Andover Presbyterians

According to Presbyterian Law, each United Presbyterian congregation must hold an annual meeting of the congregation and church corporation. The purpose of the annual meeting is to conduct the official business of the congregation, approve the budget for the year ahead, elect officers to the session and Board of Trustees and to hear the reports of the organizations of the church. This year the annual meeting of the Andover Presbyterian Church will be on Sunday, January 17th at Noon.

The meeting will be followed by a dish-to-pass dinner at the Presbyterian Fellowship Hall. Entertainment will be provided for the children.

A moment to be remembered

A funeral service conducted with beauty, dignity and deep reverence will long be dearly cherished in memory.

Tucker - Harvey

The Gothic Chapel, Alfred, N. Y., was the setting at 7:00 p. m. on Saturday, January 2, 1971, as Miss Jean Harvey became the bride of Mr. Daniel Tucker, in a traditional Scottish Highland candlelight wedding ceremony.

Dr. Myron K. Sibley of Alfred University officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harvey of Andover, N. Y., and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tucker of Bolivar, N. Y.

Paul Johnson sang "Mairi Chan Og", a Gaelic tribute to the bride. As the bride, wearing a floor-length gown of antique white satin and white Chantilly lace approached the altar with her father, piper John Lang played the Highland Wedding March. Vows were pledged in a double ring ceremony followed by the bestowal of the groom's family tartan upon the bride.

The ceremony ended with the piper playing and leading the wedding procession from the church to a reception at Howell Hall.

Attending the bride were Miss Dee Ann Held as bridesmaid and Miss Linda Darling (as maid-of-honor. Daniel MacFadden acted as best man. Donald Harvey and Leslie McKay served as ushers.

Highlighting the reception was the traditional toast by the bride and groom accompanied on the pipes of Mark Wood and dancing to bagpipe playing by friends of the bride and groom. The many family tartans worn for the occasion provided a colorful background for these ancient ceremonies.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Kenneth Cook, Mrs. Malvin Spurling (Jane Cook) and Mrs. Jon Cook (Cathy Koehler).

Following a brief honeymoon in Miami, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will be at home at 111 Genesee St., Hornell, N. Y.
