About thirty-five interested voters attended the Public Hearing on the Assessors at the Fire Hall, Tuesday night. Supervisor Francis Acker was Chairman of the meeting and explained the new State law. The voters are to decide whether to keep three Assessors or change to one Assessor. This is the only opportunity to vote on the issue. The Town Lawyer, Stanley Doran of Canisteo, was present to help clarify the issue. Other Board Members present were Justice Stanley Murray, Councilmen Neill McCormick and Lavigne Stephens and Town Clerk Marjorie York. Several problems regarding assessing were discussed. The Special Election will be held April 10.

Elder and Mrs. Carol Bassett are Chairman of the Heart Fund in Greenwood. Young people of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints collected through Town Saturday afternoon. Elder Bassett reported a total of $107 was collected. More people were home as this was an increase over the last few years. Thank you to all who helped make a successful drive.
