Marshall Warriner of West Jasper was honored at a testimonial dinner Saturday night at the Big Elms Restaurant in Hornell. It was given by the Steuben Rural Electric Cooperative for whom he has completed nearly twenty-four years service as a director. Due to advanced age and health he resigned from his position on the Board of Directors last November. As a token of Mr. Warriner's long years of service, Leland Dennis of Jasper, President of the Board of Directors, announced that one of the REA utility's substations at South Canisteo would be dedicated Saturday as the "Marshall Warriner Substation". A bronze plaque will be installed at the site as a testimonial. "His dedicated interest in the advancement of rural electrification and his business ability as a director contributed greatly to the success and welfare of the cooperative organization," said Dennis. Mr. Warriner is a retired successful farmer having conducted a farm near Greenwood which was his father's property originally. It is now operated by his son, Wayne Warriner.
