Chamber Singers To Present Sacred Concert At 3rd Union Lenten Service

The Chamber Singers of Roberts Wesleyan College, Rochester, N. Y., will present a sacred concert for the Third Union Lenten Service on Sunday, March 14, 1971 at 7:30 P. M., at Andover Methodist Church. The music is exciting in its type and excellence. Their message is one of hope.

Here is a group of young collegians who care. They care about their own futures, they care enough to have a purpose for life, and they care about the destiny of their nations and our world. They are dedicated college students who share and combine their musical talents, presenting a program of the time-honored message of faith for all of humanity today.

The members of the Chamber Singers come from three states and one province, from various backgrounds, and diversified goals for the future; they care about one common goal — a desire for presenting through music the certainty that youth today is still a sound generation.

The public is invited to attend the concert, says the host pastor, the Rev. Gerald A. Wolter.

Card of Thanks

The Family of Florence Earley wish to express their gratitude for all the acts of kindness rendered them at the time of their bereavement.
