Redwings Down Wellsville All-Stars

Last Tuesday the Andover Redwings Basketball Team downed the Wellsville Community League All-Stars, 96 to 89, in an exciting ball game. Dick Joyce lead the Redwings with 27 points, followed by John Hewes with 20 points. High man for the All-Stars was Tom Hirsch with 17 points. Both teams started out slow in the first half, but then the Redwings came to life in the second half scoring 56 points, mostly on the fine outside shooting of Dick Joyce. Big John Hewes kept the Redwings in the game in the first half with his shooting and rebounding. Milt VonHagen turned in another great defensive game with his hustling play.

The All-Stars want a rematch if it can be arranged.

The "Boony South" Is Underway

With favorite old songs of the south the Andover Minstrels have started rehearsal. A large circle will be evident on the "Showboat" as it docks at Andover Central School Auditorium on May 14 and 15 at 8 p. m.

The regular crew of "Bob" Baker, "Don" Baker, "Ev" Childs, "Jim" Mulholland and Frank Russell will be joined by "Bob" Dodge of Barbershop fame.

Specialty acts will include: A Girls' Sextet: Sharon Lewis, Elaine Bronson, Brenda Preston, Deborah Nichols, Beth Wolter and Voni Mattison; Ron Godown on guitar and Susan McClure and Dick Godown, who recently appeared in Wellsville at the Lion's Club Show. Allison Baker, Oliver Baker and Eddie Ryan are practicing for the "big event" and local musician Steve Walker will delight the audience along with Mark and Karen Copp on their Spanish guitars, Mark Hyslip and Singin' Father Joe.

Practice for the Circle will be held 7:30 to 8:30 Wednesday, Mar. 31 and April 7 to avoid conflict with the Cantata.
