Redwings Down Wayland 4 - 3

Andover Redwings down Wayland 4 to 3, in 10 innings, in their first State League game!

Chuck Alsheimer lead off the bottom of the ninth with a triple and scored the tying run on a sacrifice bunt by Wally Amphlett. With 2 outs in the tenth Guy Grantier singled, his third hit of the day, stole second, moved to third on two walks and scored the winning run on a wild pitch.

Pete Lauzze relieved starter Bob Cleaves in the fifth with the bases loaded and no outs and pitched the Redwings out of the jam. Dave Lyslak who relieved in the eighth was the winning pitcher. Kuhn who came on in the ninth was the loser

The Redwings are home with Cananadigu Monday for a 4:00 o'clock game.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to all who sent cards, flowers, visitations and other acts of kindness extended to me and my family while I was in the hospital.
