Public Notice For Hearing On An Ordinance Providing For The Licensing Of Merchants, Dealers, Peddlers, Hucksters, Canvassers, Agents and Others Using the Streets and Public Places of the Village of Andover

A public hearing will be held at the Village Hall in the Village of Andover, Allegany County, N. Y., on the 10th day of June 1971, between the hours of 7 P. M. and 9 P. M. for the following proposed ordinance on licensing in the Village of Andover.

All interested persons will be heard at the said time and place.

The following is a copy of the proposed licensing ordinance of the Village of Andover:

Section 1.

Except as herein provided all persons who are now engaged or who hereafter engage in purchasing, buying, bartering, selling, peddling, hawking, or vending goods, wares and merchandise or other personal property, or soliciting orders or subscriptions for the sale or purchase thereof, or for work, labor or services to be rendered to residents of the village to be done and performed elsewhere than upon the premises of such resident, in the public streets, or by going from house to house within the limits of the village, whether he or she be the principal or employee, agent or representative of any other person, firm or corporation, shall procure a license so to do from the clerk of the village and shall pay to the treasurer of the village the license fee hereinafter provided.

Section 2.

The fee for licenses issued under Section 1. of this ordinance shall be as follows:

If a vehicle is used the license fee for the period commencing on the date when such license is issued and ending on the 31st day of May next thereafter, shall be the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), or a daily fee of two dollars ($2.00) per day, which license in either case shall include the right of one person and no more to be in attendance upon said vehicle. For each person operating from a vehicle, in addition to the one person holding a license, therefor, the license fee for the like period shall be the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or a daily fee of two dollars ($2.00) per day.

The license fee for any other person who does not operate a vehicle in connection with such work shall be the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for the period commencing on the date said license is issued and ending on the 31st day of May next thereafter, or a daily fee of two dollars ($2.00) per day. If the applications for any license, other than a daily license, is made after December 1 in any one year the amount of such license fee shall be one-half of the foregoing rates and all of said licenses, except daily licenses, shall expire on the 31st day of May next after the date of issue.

Section 3.

All applicants for a license or a permit under the provisions of this ordinance shall file with the mayor or with the clerk of the village, an application for the same setting forth, under oath, his or her name, age, place of residence and if an employee, agent or representative of any other person, firm or corporation, together with such other information as the mayor of the village may require.

Section 4.

All of said licenses and permits shall be issued by the mayor of the village and shall be countersigned by the clerk of the village, who shall keep a record thereof and of the amount of the fee, if any, to be paid therefor; and upon presentation of such license to the treasurer of the village so signed and countersigned, and the payment to the treasurer of such license fee, the treasurer shall endorse thereon his receipt and, except as hereinafter provided, no license shall take effect until the receipt of the treasurer shall have been endorsed thereon. The license or permit must be shown to anyone on demand and no person holding such license or permit shall be permitted to engage in any work or occupation thereunder on Sundays or before eight o'clock in the morning, or after 6 o'clock in the evening on other days.

Section 5.

No license or permit issued under the provisions of this ordinance shall include more than one person, nor shall more than one license or permit of any kind be issued to any one person, and no license or permit hereunder shall be transferable. Except that if the holder of any license or permit is engaged in work as the agent or representative of some other person, firm or corporation, then and in that event, with the consent of the mayor of the village and in his discretion the said license or permit may be surrendered and a new license or permit issued to some other person for the unexpired term thereof, without the payment of any license fee. Any person assigning or transferring or attempting to assign or transfer any license or permit issued hereunder except as herein provided, shall be guilty of violating this ordinance.

Section 6.

The provisions of the foregoing sections of this ordinance shall not be construed to require the obtaining of a license or permit by a person who is the bona fide owner or lessee and occupant of a store, shop, warehouse, factory or other place of business within the village, for the sale, distribution, storage or manufacture of any of the goods, wares and merchandise or other personal property, or where such work labor and services can be or are intended to be performed.

The peddling of meats, fish, fruits and farm produce by farmers and persons who produce such commodities and the hawking or peddling by an honorable discharged sailor or marine who is crippled as a result of injuries received while in the naval or military service of the United States, or who is the holder of a license granted under Section 32 of the General Business Law are excepted from any of the provisions of this ordinance.
