

Local Young Lady Finds Prize Balloon

Miss Beth Ann Empson, 8½-year old daughter of Ralph and Betty Empson, spotted a balloon in a tree on their property Friday night, May 28th, which may turn out to be a prize balloon released by a School Class near Buffalo, N. Y.

Beth Ann spotted the balloon high in a tree near the Empson home which is the former Merton Wright property on Route 17, 3 miles East of Andover on the Steuben County Line, and pestered her father until he climbed the tree of Saturday and retrieved the card attached to the string on the balloon.

The card read — To Whom It May Concern: After finding this card, please place it in the mail. The person sending in the card from the furthest point from the Willow Ridge School in Amherst, N. Y., will receive a prize of $10, $5, or $3. If you are a lucky winner we will mail you a check. There was a space for the finders name and address as well as a request to state the Graphical Location where the balloon was found. Signed: Betsy Washkuhn, 4125 Rensch Rd., Buffalo, N. Y., attending Willow Ridge Elementary School in Tonawanda.

So, perhaps an observing ACS student may share in the "mana from heaven".
