United States Postal Service Day July 1st

The inauguration of the new United States Postal Service on July 1st, will be celebrated in Washington, D. C. and in every post office across the country. Dedication ceremonies in Washington will be hosted by Postmaster General Blount. Honored guest at the dedication will include members of Congress, former Postmaster Generals, the Board of Governors of the new Postal Service and their wives as well as Assistant Postmaster General headquarters personnel and other dignitaries.

The United States Post Office Department will fade into history after nearly 200 years of service to the American people.

Our Andover Post Office lobby will be displayed with various types of posters in honor of July 1. The new 8 cent Post Service Stamp will go on sale at this office on that date, and we hope the public will be satisfied with the new set-up of the Postal Service.
