

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Pielow

Karol Anne Gavin and Richard E. Pielow Wed

The Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover was the setting Saturday, June 19, 1971, for the marriage of Miss Karol Anne Gavin to Richard Edward Pielow. The Rev. Joseph Fiore, assistant pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Gavin of Grove Street, Andover with the son of Mrs. Walter Pielow of East Main Street, Angelica, and the late Mr. Pielow. Miss Cheryl Pelton was the organist and soloist.

The bride entered the sanctuary and was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal floor-length Empire gown of imported silk organza, styled with a floral veil accenting the neckline centered in front of her gown as well as accenting the rest of her gown. It was designed with an A-line skirt, full sleeves and Watteau train. Her silk illusion floor-length manilla was edged in matching lace and she carried a bouquet of coral Shasta daisies and white Fuji mums.

Miss Kathryn Andrewjanko of Rochester, was the Maid-of-Honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Cecilia Gavin, Miss Joyce Dibble and Miss Kathryn Gorsuch, all of Andover; Mrs. Ruth Watkins of Belmont and Miss Kathryn Brown of Hamburg. Katie Rigas of Wellsville was the flower girl, carrying a colonial basket of pink roses, baby's breath and white mums.

The attendants wore floral print pant gowns of crepe chiffon over taffeta, with colored bodices in coral, grass green, lilac, hot pink, lime green and radiant blue. They wore sprigs of baby's breath in their hair and carried bouquets of mums dyed to match the dress bodices. The bouquets were designed by Frank Price, a student at Alfred State College who also designed the bouquets for the wedding of Trijo Nlyon. Prof. Morris of Alfred made up the bouquets.

Edward Corney of Rochester was best man for the occasion. Ushers were Michael Pielow of Angelica, Gerald Garwood and Michael Palmesano, both of Hornell, Douglas Mulholland of Andover and William Young of State College, Pa. Steven Dibble of Andover, was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother selected a pink taffeta dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom chose a beige lace dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A buffet luncheon for 300 guests at the VFW Frank B. Church Post 2530 in Wellsville, honored the newlyweds, with the Joe Canale band from Alfred, furnishing the music.

Following a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, Va., the couple will reside at 26 1/2 Spruce St., Hornell, New York.

The bride is a 1969 graduate of Andover Central School and graduated in June from Alfred State College as a medical record technician. She expects to be employed in July at St James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, in the medical records department.

Mr. Pielow graduated from Angelica Central School and attended Alfred State. He is a standards technician at Worthington Corp., in Wellsville.
