Western New York Firemen's Convention

The 72nd Western New York Volunteer Firemen's Association will hold its annual Convention in Bowmansville, New York on July 26, 27 and 28 under the leadership of President, George MacPeck, of the Bowmansville Fire Company of Bowmansville, New York.

The headquarters of the convention will be located in the Bowmansville Fire Hall. The secretarial office will be open for registration on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday for the convenience of the delegates and members wishing to register.

The regular convention meeting will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday at Bowmansville Volunteer Fire Company Hall. These meetings will consist of reports of various committees to the membership. The report of the Fire Prevention Committee will be given by Chairman, William Ludwig of Rochester, N. Y. He has reported that he has received over five thousand essays from school children of the 6, 7 and 8 grades throughout Western New York which are now in the hands of the judges to select the winners. Also he has received brochures at the present time on their fire prevention schedule of the past year. These are also being judged at the present time.

The report of the Fireman of the Year Committee will be given by Chairman, Robert Bostwick of Caledonia, New York. His Committee has selected the Fireman of the Year, who will be honored at the convention, accompanied by his fire company and his family. There will also be a "fire service" award which is given to a fireman who has served his company most faithfully.

The Parade Rules Committee will be given by Chairman, William Wutz, from Williamsville, New York. The Association will be using professional music bands for the marching bands and drum corps in this year's parade. It looks like we will have a mammoth parade this year.

Any firematic organization interested in participating in the Western New York Volunteer Firemen's Association parade in Bowmansville, New York, on July 28 is invited to contact Mr. Bill MacPeck, 5320 Genesee Street, Bowmansville, New York, who is this year's Parade Chairman. He will take care of the details for any interested companies.
