Buddy Plan Enlistment Option
 The Army announces a new enlistment option designed to make military life more appealing. Referred to as the Combat Arms Buddy Plan Enlistment Option, it allows good friends to go together and stay together.
 This "buddy plan" guarantees that an unlimited number of qualified young men from the same community can enlist and remain together through basic and advanced individual training. They even receive their initial duty assignment at the same station.
 In order to qualify for the new option, each member of the group must enlist for the same combat arms branch and agree to train and be assigned in the same military occupational specialty.
 According to Sergeant Young local Army recruiter, a whole football team, a baseball team, or all boys in the high school graduating class can enlist and stay together. Just drop by to see him at 153 N. Union St., Olean, N. Y., or call 716-372-0267.
