

Miss Susan K. McClure Becomes Bride Of Richard Godown

Miss Susan Kay McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. McClure of Andover, became the bride of Richard Lawrence Godown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Godown of Andover in the First Presbyterian Church, Andover, on Sunday, July 27.

The Rev. Alan C. Minarcik, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at 2:00 p.m. before an altar decorated with baskets of mixed flowers and candelabra.

Mrs. Douglas York presided at the organ and preceded the ceremony Robert J. McClure of Elmira, brother of the bride, was soloist, accompanying himself on the guitar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown, which she made, was of white peau de soie with an overlay of silk organza. The mandarin neckline, gathered wrist-length sleeves and A-line skirt were trimmed with Venetian lace. The brush train which was attached at the back of the empire waistline was of silk organza, trimmed with Venetian lace. A triple bow of peau de soie held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of daisies, ivy and gypsophelia.

Mrs. Paul Whitehouse of Skaneateles, N.Y., was matron of honor for her sister in a floor length A-line gown of apricot dotted swiss with daisy motif featuring scoop neckline, short sleeves and satin ribbon at the empire waistline tied into back streamers. She wore a dior hairbow of matching dotted swiss and carried a bouquet of daisies and gypsophelia.

Mrs. Robert Boyer, of Andover, in lime green and Miss Shelagh McClure, niece of the bride, in lavender were bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor differing only in color. They wore matching hairbows and carried bouquets of daisies and gypsophelia. Miss Susan Godown, sister of the groom was flower girl and wore a similar gown in powder blue and carried a basket of mixed garden flowers.

Robert Brown, of Andover, was best man. Ushers were Ronald and Roger Godown, brothers of the groom, Russell Godown, a brother, served as acolyte. Nephews of the bride, Sean McClure and Mark Whitehouse were assistant ushers. Ian Whitehouse, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mrs. McClure chose a dress of yellow double knit and a corsage of white gardenias and honeysuckle. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of light blue bonded lace complemented with a gardenia and honeysuckle corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for 175 guests was held at the Andover Masonic Temple where music was provided by Mrs. Clyde Yorton at the piano and Oliver Kemp, uncle of the bride, with violin. Presiding at the punch bowl were Miss Shelia Cook of Hornell and Miss Laurie Collins of Andover and Mrs. Robert McClure of Elmira, N.Y. The five-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table and was cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Oliver Kemp.

The bride graduated from Andover Central school, attended Corning Community College and graduated from the Wellsville Campus, S.U.N.Y. at Alfred, N.Y. She is employed in the data processing department, Air Preheater Corp., Wellsville, N.Y. Mr. Godown is a graduate of Andover Central School, attended S.U.N.Y. at Geneseo, N.Y. and is a senior at S.U.N.Y. Alfred, majoring in data processing. Mr. and Mrs. Godown will reside on Greenwood St., Andover.

Prenuptial affairs included a variety shower by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Oliver Kemp. A kitchen shower was given by the Misses Margaret Wood and Mary Lee. A linen shower was given at the home of the bride's aunt Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Runzo of Wellsville by Mrs. Thomas Koch of Rochester, Mrs. Donald Davis of Buffalo and Mrs. Runzo, a shower by the choir of the Andover Methodist Church and a rehearsal party given by the groom's parents at their home in Andover.
