

Continued from Page Two
 Smith as agricultural teacher in the Andover Central School, arrived this week.

Ralph E. Temple was elected president of the American Legion Post No. 507. Other officers elected are: Ralph Bargett, 1st vice commander; Harold Emery, 2nd vice commander; R. O. Snyder, finance officer; C. C. Beckus, adjutant; F. E. Boyd, service officer; Harold Perry, sergeant-at-arms.

Members of the Andover Exchange Club and their ladies enjoyed the annual Exchange Club picnic held at the Fuller and Lever Cabins at Elm Valley.

Lewis Howe and George Mickle are delegate and alternate from the Andover Fire Department to attend the Firemen's Convention at Westfield.

The American Legion Band will give a concert on Greenwood St. this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford (Florence Mulholland) of Kenmore are parents of a daughter, Sharon Lee, born July 14.

The evening division of the King's Daughters of the Presbyterian Church were entertained at a 7:00 dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rogers. Mrs. O. J. Whitaker, Mrs. Orville Kupp and Mrs. George Weryly assisted the hostess.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Charles Hammond-Sunday, July 27 in honor of her birthday. A chicken dinner was served at Childs restaurant. Sixteen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atwell and children of Elm Valley returned Monday from their trip to Michigan. Their cousin Mrs. Nettie Van Antwerp accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowers and family of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Matteson; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Matteson and daughters, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Clarke, Independence.

Director and Mrs. S. W. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spicer of Independence attended a sub-district meeting of the Dairymen's League at Friendship Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clark, sons Ronald and Victor, and Mrs. H. G. Clark of South Hill were Sunday callers at the home of Newton Clark and family.

James O'Leary and daughter, Mary, spent Sunday at the home of Lewis Dean and sisters, South Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Mead and family were Saturday evening callers of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce, South Hill.

Mrs. William Woodruff, Mrs. Guy Hulin and Mrs. Florence Martin of Alfred attended a birthday dinner held at the home of Mrs. Archie Shaw in Hornell Friday.

Principal and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch arrived home Monday from Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howland were in Belfast Saturday where they were guests at the wedding of Miss Queen Cory and James J. Sullivan of Olean.

Mrs. Harold Huffcutt and daughter, Ruth Ann returned Wednesday to their home at Sea Cliff, L. I., after passing several days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Sheppard of Penny Farms, Fla., Miss Natalie Sheppard of Delaware, Ohio; and Miss Eva Sheppard of Vanga, Belgain Congo, Africa, are spending this week with friends in Andover.

To-Visit Relatives In England

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Nye, daughter Deborah and sons Robin and Timothy of Rochester, left by motor on route to New York City Wednesday. They leave by plane from the Kennedy Airport for England to visit relatives of her family. This is the first time Mrs. Nye has visited her country since coming to Andover about 18 1/2 years ago.

BAND MEMBERS
 ALL uniforms must be turned in by Aug. 20. They will be sent to the school at that time. If they are not turned in, you will pay your own shipping expense. There are 21 uniforms and 10 of them. They may be lost at Mrs. Pomeroy's or the school.

Smith, Torrey Marriage

The Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover, New York was the setting Saturday, August 7, 1971 for the marriage of Miss Mary Kathleen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Smith of R.D. 2, Andover, New York to Robert Torrey, son of Mr. Robert Torrey of Main St., Almond, New York.

The Rev. John Michael Shea of Andover and the Rev. Leon Hart, brother of the bride's uncle, of Rochester, performed the 11 a.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and blue daisies. Mrs. Sutton of Arkport was organist and Jerry Howe, accompanied by Donald Smith and John Pettibone of Ohio on guitars, was the soloist. He sang "Color My World" and "Prelude."

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown, which was worn by her mother at her wedding. The gown was of slipper satin with a bodice of chantilly lace applique on satin. A bias fold of satin formed a small stand-up collar and the long lace sleeves ended in points over the hands and fastened with tiny buttons. The upper part of the skirt was lace applique on satin and flowed into a graceful cathedral length train. She wore a clustered headband of daisies and carried a bouquet of daisies and blue carnations.

Mrs. Richard Cappadonia of Wellsville was the matron of honor. She was attired in a long white and blue peasant dress which featured a lace edged stand-up collar, short puffed sleeves, wide waistline and ruffled bottom. She wore a headband of daisies and carried a single blue carnation.

Mrs. J. Donald Smith was the junior bridesmaid. She wore a long peasant gown of raspberry with white flowered stripes. It featured a round ruffle neckline, empire waist and ruffled bottom on the skirt. A headband of daisies and a single blue carnation completed the ensemble.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lynn Smith of Columbus, Ohio, Miss Maureen Thorp of Andover, Miss Teresa Smith and Miss Linda Smith, sisters of the bride. They wore long white, blue and brown peasant dresses with short puff sleeves and lacing in the front with a ruffled bottom. They wore daisy headbands and carried a single blue carnation.

Marcella Smith, sister of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a long peasant dress identical to the junior bridesmaid and wore a headband of daisies. She carried a basket of white daisies.

Monica Smith, sister of the bride, was train bearer and was dressed identically to the flower girl.

Jeffrey Smith, the bride's brother, was the ring bearer.

Best man was Craig Braack, U.S. Navy, Pensacola, Fla. Ushers were Richard Torrey, Almond, brother of the groom, Charles Torrey, Perry, N.Y., uncle of the groom, James Smith, Wellsville, brother of the bride and Edward Marr, Alfred, N.Y.

The bride's mother chose a long peasant dress of red, gold and black cotton with long puffed sleeves, scooped neckline, an empire waist and ruffled bottom. She wore a corsage of daisies. The groom's mother was attired in a green cotton print peasant dress with small white flowers, long mutton sleeves, fitted waistline and lace edged standup collar. She wore a corsage of daisies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Beacon Inn in Hornell for 175 guests. Music was furnished by the "Gothic" rock and roll group. A buffet luncheon was served the guests. The bride's cake was a blue and white four tiered cake made by Joan Wallace. A picture of the bride and groom topped the cake with small white doves on the gold frame.

Following a wedding trip to Virginia Beach the couple are residing at W. University St., Alfred, New York.

The bride is a graduate of the Andover Central School and will enter her sophomore year at the SUNY College in Geneseo this fall.

The groom is a graduate of the Alfred-Almond High School and the Alfred Ag-Tech College. He is presently self-employed as a painting contractor.

Pre-nuptial events included a variety shower by Mrs. Encil Glover, a variety shower by Mrs. Richard Cappadonia and a rehearsal dinner by Mrs. Audrey Torrey.

Guests were present from Andover, Wellsville, Alfred, Almond, Greenwood, Hornell, Arkport, Dansville, Perry, Syracuse, Olean, Columbus, Ohio, and Atlanta, Georgia.

Osgood, Moline Marriage

Miss Debra J. Osgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ormal Osgood of Willard St., Belmont, N.Y. became the bride of Sgt. Robert J. Moline, son of Mrs. Marlene Moline of Andover, N.Y. and Mr. Bruno Moline of Wellsville, N.Y., July 31, 1971 at the Trinity Lutheran Church, Wellsville, N.Y.

Rev. Elmer Krentz, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, performed the 1 p.m. double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white daisies and white gladioli. Traditional wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Carol English, organist and Mrs. Joyce Perkins was soloist.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She chose a traditional white wedding gown of organza over nylon, styled with a wedding ring collar accented with lace and seed pearls. The camelot sleeves and empire waist bodice were similarly trimmed. The A-line skirt flowed into a chapel-length train. She wore a tiered veil of illusion with a lace and organza petal headpiece, trimmed with pearls and borealis and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with a purple orchid corsage and white streamers.

Mrs. Bonita Fanton, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kay Nevoll of Andover, Miss Linda Dunn of Lewiston, and Miss Janet Edwards of Ransomville, roommates of the bride.

The matron of honor wore a floor-length gown of pink chiffon, featuring a high neckline, fitted bodice and long full sleeves trimmed with Venice lace. Her headpiece was loops and petals of lace attached to a circular face veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with contrasting pink ribbon.

The bridesmaids were similarly attired in gowns of orchid, Nile green and blue and carried carnation bouquets.

Wanda Ordway of Andover as flower girl, was attired in a pink chiffon dress identical to those worn by the bridesmaids with an organza bow headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Todd Fanton was ringbearer and Tim Fanton, both of Andover, was train bearer. They are twin nephews of the groom.

Mr. Jay Fanton of Andover was the best man with guests being seated by Mr. David Alyord, Mr. John Fanton of Andover and Mr. Joseph Pardee of Youngstown.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Osgood chose a mint green A-line dress with jewel neckline and wore a corsage of white carnations tipped with gold. Mrs. Moline was attired in an A-line dress of apricot with a jewel neckline and wore a white carnation corsage tipped in silver.

A reception for two hundred guests was held at the Alfred State Vocational Center dining room following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Virginia Beach the couple will reside at 6104 Dallas Place, Marlow Heights, Md.

Mrs. Moline is a 1970 graduate of Belmont Central School and BOCES and a 1971 graduate of Bryant & Stratton Business Institute of Buffalo.

Mr. Moline is a graduate of Andover Central School, class of 1968. He attended aircraft mechanic school in Texas in 1969. Serving with the U.S. Air Force he is presently stationed at Andrews A.F.B. near Washington, D.C.

Pre-nuptial affairs included a variety shower given by Kathy Stole, Joyce Perking, cousins of the bride and Mae Gloske, the bride's aunt. A kitchen shower was given by the bridal attendants.

NEW ARRIVALS
 Mr. and Mrs. Michael Burton of LeRoy, are the parents of a 6 lb. 1 oz. baby girl, Stephanie-Dianna, born Saturday, August 14th at the Warsaw Community Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weatherby of Andover are the paternal grandparents and Mrs. Flossie Nichols of Andover is the paternal great-grandmother.

Hospitals
 Mrs. Donna Westbrook has been discharged as a patient from the St. James Mercy Hospital.

Jeffrey Johner has been discharged as a patient from the Bethesda Hospital.

Miss Joyce Harris was discharged as a medical patient from the Jones Memorial Hospital.

William F. Joyce, a medical patient in the Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre, Pa., returned home, Saturday.