The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints was the setting for a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon August 14. Miss Marcia Rawleigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rawleigh of Niagara Falls became the bride of Dale E. Burley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burley of Stephens Mills.

Elder Carol Bassett, Pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at three o'clock before the altar decorated with twin candelabra and baskets of orange and white gladioli. Mrs. June Rollins was the organist.

The bride escorted by her father, wore a floor length lace organza gown with fitted bodice, high neck and long sleeves. A train was attached to the waist with a bow. She wore a shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Her sister, Mrs. Arthur Horton of Alfred, was her matron of honor. She wore a floor length yellow silk gown with short sleeves and square neck with matching net head piece. Her flower piece was orange and white flowers. The flower girl was Lisa Skrnypok of Niagara Falls, a niece of the bride. She wore floor length gown of burnt orange with matching headpiece.

Charles Burley of Port Allegany, Pa. was best man for his brother. His son, Kenneth Burley, was ring bearer. Ushers were Neil Burley of Stephens Mills and Michael Janese of Niagara Falls.

A reception followed the ceremony for about 125 guests at the Birmingham-Burd American Legion Post. A buffet luncheon was prepared by the family, with a wedding cake made by Mrs. Norma Wilcox of Cameron.

Guests were present from Niagara Falls, Stephens Mills, Port Allegany, Canisteo, Cameron, Alfred and Greenwood.
