

Miss Diana Thorp and Stephen L. Burton Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Louis Burton

The Andover First Presbyterian church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Diana Thorp and Stephen Louis Burton, Saturday August 14, 1971 at two o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thorp of Chestnut Street and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weatherby of Baker Street.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald Wolter, pastor of the Andover Methodist Church, before an altar decorated in bouquets of colored gladioli. Mrs. Richard Godwin was soloist accompanied by Mrs. Douglas York, organist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal gown styled with an Empire waist of white organza over taffeta with a re-embroidered bodice. Venice lace outlined the bouffant sleeves, bodice and hem of the cathedral train. Her fingertip veil fell from petals of matching material and sequin trim. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red rosebuds.

Mrs. Robert McGillivray of Wellsville, was the Matron-of-Honor. She chose a gown of floral dotted Swiss over mint green taffeta and carried a basket of mint green carnations and white daisies.

The bridesmaids were Miss Rose

Sturdevant, Allentown, the Misses Maureen and Noreen Thorp, Andover, sisters of the bride. Their gowns were identical to the Matron-of-Honor, in colors of yellow pink and blue with baskets of matching carnations, and white daisies.

David Alvord acted as best man. Ushers were Robert McGillivray, Wellsville, Gary Hulse and David Vickers, Andover.

The bride's mother selected a dress of pink rayon crepe with lace trimming. The bridegroom's mother wore a brown and white knit ensemble and each wore a mixed floral corsage.

The reception was held at the Shamrock in Wellsville with approximately 150 guests attending.

Following a wedding trip to the Thousand Islands, the couple will reside at Elm Valley.

The bride graduated from Andover Central School in 1966 and is employed as cashier at the Big "N" in Wellsville. The bridegroom also a 1966 graduate of Andover Central School, served in the U.S. Army from 1967-69 and is station attendant at Roeske's ARCO, Andover.

Prenuptial events included showers hosted by four sisters of the bride and by her co-workers at the Big "N".

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post enjoyed the presence of their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Scavazzo of Long Island August 16 as they were returning from their vacation at Keuka Lake. During their stay, we were all happily surprised by the visit of Mrs. Alta Peattie and Mrs. Virginia Wise of Canisteo, mother and niece of Mrs. Post, also the unexpected visit of Professor William Wheeler and wife, a native of England, who were returning to Columbia, Missouri where he is a teacher at Stephens College. At the same time was also our daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Updike, Sr., of Keuka Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post Jr. and daughter enjoyed these gatherings with us. On Saturday August 21, our daughter and family from Geneva visited us.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dana Peck of Alfred, N. Y., were Tuesday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Paul Ordiway and family. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ordiway and Mr. and Mrs. Peck called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond of the Greenwood Hill Road.

—Tobby and Jeffrey Ordiway are among the group of children attending the combined C & M A and Baptist Vacation Bible School this week held at the C & M A
