

Carr-Sertick

The Rev. William G. Ward officiated at the marriage of Miss Martha E. Sertick and Joseph L. Carr, Saturday, August 7, 1971 in Prince of Peace Church. The double-ring ceremony took place at noon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sertick, 185 57th St., Rochester, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor P. Carr, Rockstream, N. Y.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an organdy eyelet gown styled with a high collar, bishop sleeves and chapel train. Venise lace and yellow ribbon trimmed the gown. Yellow ribbons also trimmed the cap headpiece which secured her elbow length veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white daisies, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Miss Patricia Mikula, maid of honor, wore a yellow dotted Swiss gown styled with full sleeves and accented with daisies. She wore a white picture hat with yellow streamers and carried a basket of yellow and white daisies. In similar attire were the bridesmaids: Mrs. Michael Spence, Rochester; Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Rochester and Miss Mary Carr, Rockstream.

William Carr, Rockstream, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Martin Ademoic, Rochester; Gary Kimmet, Rochester, and Jerome Sertick, brother of the bride.

An afternoon reception was held at the Crown and Anchor Restaurant.

After a wedding trip to Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and Quebec, the newlyweds will reside at 2622 Dewey Ave., Rochester. The bride is a secretary for the law firm of Tarricone, Bilgore, Weldman and Silver. The bridegroom is a draftsman for Hershey, Malone and Associates.

Joseph Carr graduated from Andover Central School and New York State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred.
