

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Kent

Miss Kathleen M. Gavin and Thomas E. Kent Exchange Vows

The Andover First Presbyterian Church was the setting at 1 o'clock Saturday, August 21, 1971 for the marriage of Miss Kathleen Marie Gavin and Thomas Edward Kent, before an altar decorated with bouquets of white gladioli, white and yellow asters and marigolds.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Fiore and Rev. Alan Minarick. Miss Sharon Lewis was the soloist accompanied by Miss Cindy Preston at the organ.

The former Miss Gavin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gavin of Grove St., and Mr. Kent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kent of 2 Fuller St.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a floor length gown styled with a bouffant skirt, a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace featuring a Sabrina neckline and Juliet sleeves. Her Mantilla veil was held by a Chantilly lace crown and fell into a train which was edged with Chantilly lace. She carried a white orchid surrounded by yellow sweetheart roses and autumn flowers.

Her attendants were Mrs. Ralph Searle, sister of the bridegroom, as Matron-of-Honor and her sister Miss Mary Kay Gavin, as Maid-of-Honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Grace Herr of Andover and Miss Sheila Cook of Conklin, St. Hornell. Miss Teresa Gavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gavin of East Valley and cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

The Matron-of-Honor and Maid-of-Honor were attired in floor length gowns of moss and avocado green chiffon featuring the Empire waistline trimmed with a satin Dior bow high neckline accented with ruffle and bishop sleeves. The bridesmaids gowns were identical in autumn gold and maize. They wore matching straw garden hats with tulle trim and each carried bouquets of autumn flowers.

The flower girl's dress was made by Mrs. Donald Kent to match the bridesmaids in autumn gold and maize and matching Dior bow headpiece.

John Billings, Wellsville, acted as best man. Ushers were Ralph Searle, brother-in-law of the groom, Robert Brown and Robert Leonard, all of Andover.

The mother of the bride chose a lavender knit dress with white accessories and wore a yellow rose corsage. The groom's mother selected a royal blue knit dress with —Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walsh and daughter, Ameer and Ellen, of Glen Rock, N. J., returned to their home Friday after visiting her mother, Mrs. Rodney Robinson at the Robinson Homestead.

PERSONALS

—Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barlow were at Hickory Hill Camp Grounds, at Bath, N. Y., Friday, Saturday and Sunday and attended the Bath Fair Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evans of Clarence, his sister, Miss Dorothea Evans of Austin, Pa., were Saturday callers at the home of Mrs. John Lever.

—Mr. and Mrs. Reid Mattison daughter Yvonne and son, Christian Mrs. Jane Sisson and sons, Hal and Don, were Saturday overnight guests at the home of Mrs. Sisson's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Monty Peters in Fairfax, Va. Yvonne, Chris and Don remained for the week.

—Mrs. John Lever and Mrs. Claire Backus enjoyed a motor trip through the Finger Lakes Friday. They enjoyed a picnic lunch in the State Park and viewed the new buildings at Eisenhower College. Enroute home they stopped in Canandaigua and saw Craig Snyder in the Post Office and then visited Mrs. Snyder and family at their home.

—Miss Ruby Jordan and Miss Agnes Taylor returned this weekend from a month's vacation in Maine visiting Mr. and Mrs. Max Jordan at their summer cottage on Megunticook Lake.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ordway and two grandchildren, Kimberly and Robin, flew to Minot Air Force Base in North Dakota August 14 and returned August 28. While there Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ordway and three children of Whittier, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ordway, Jr., and daughter of Newbern, N. C., visited S/Sgt. and Mrs. David E. Ordway and son, John.

—Miss Martha Lynch returned home last Monday after a three-month stay at W. Harwich, Mass., and in the Cape Cod area. She will be teaching in the business department of LeRoy Central School beginning Sept. 8.

—Mrs. Rodney Robinson and Matthew Worcester, returned to Rutherford, N. J., Tuesday, after spending the summer at the Robinson Homestead.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Yorton and

"Mike" Gath were in Rochester last Wednesday to call on their brother, Charles Gath, who is a patient in the Rochester General Hospital. "Chick" suffered a slight heart attack and will be convalescing for three months.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. Lynn Parker have purchased the Baker house at 8 Harmon St., and moved in Monday, August 23. Mr. Parker is employed at Alfred and Mrs. Parker "Sid", is the Woman's Page Editor for the Wellsville Daily Reporter. They have three children, Michael, 17; Becky 14 and Diana 11, who will be attending Andover Central School.

Appreciation

My sincere thanks to all my friends for the cards, gifts, flowers and to Rev. Wolter and others who visited me during my stay in the hospital.

Oliver H. Baker

Too Late To Classify

RUMMAGE SALE — Odds & Ends, Baby Clothes, Dishes, Some Furniture. Thursday and Friday, 10 Barney St. Maggie Rosinski.

35

navy blue accessories and wore a dark salmon rose corsage.

A buffet luncheon was held in the Venetian Room at the Big Elms in Hornell, for 200 guests. Miss Laurie Collins and Miss Diane Carmody, both of Andover, were hostesses.

For a wedding trip to the Pocomos and Ocean City, N. J., the bride wore an orange cotton lap pant suit made by Mrs. Donald Kent and a corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The couple plan to reside on Pingrey Hill Road in Andover.

Both are graduates of Andover Central School. Mr. Kent received a Bachelor of Science degree from Cornell University and is vice-president of Kents Farms in Andover.

Out-of-town guests were present from Walden, Annapolis, Md., Towson, Md., Syracuse, Jamestown, Binghamton, Ithaca and McGra.

Pre-nuptial events included a shower given by Mrs. Ralph Searle of Andover and a variety shower given by Mrs. John Bush and Mrs. Thomas Cronin.

You Won't Outgrow Your Savings At The "CITZ"

It's because saving is made easy for you at Citizens National. You can bank at any office, drive-up window or by mail, whichever is more convenient.

— And remember . . . Citizens National is a full service bank so all your banking business can be handled with one stop.

Start stacking your coins today at Citizens National Bank and Trust Company.

Deposits Received by
September 10
Will Earn Interest From
September 1

YOU BANK THE "CITZ"

THE CITIZENS

AND TRUST COMPANY