Naval Reserve Officers School To Begin 18th Year Thursday

The Naval Reserve Officers School for Western New York will commence its eighteenth consecutive year of operation this Thursday evening at the Naval Training Center at the foot of Porter Avenue in Buffalo, near the Peace Bridge.

Organized in 1954, the school has been in continuous operation ever since, with over 700 Naval, Marine and Coast Guard officers completing courses. Courses to be offered this year include Navigation, Public Affairs, Oceanography, Anti-Submarine Warfare Operations, and Amphibious Operations. Naval Reserve officers as well as those of the other armed services are invited to attend a briefing and registration session Thursday at 8:00 P. M. in civilian dress in the Training Center.
