"Tell It Like It Is" Concert At Andover

"Freeborn", the 30 - member troupe of Wellsville area young musicians, will present the folk rock musical entitled, "Tell It Like It Is" at 7:30 p. m. this Sunday, Dec. 12, at the Andover United Methodist Church.

The group has given concerts throughout Western New York this fall drawing capacity crowds where ever they sing. They received a standing ovation by an audience of 1,200 at Niagara University recently.

"Freeborn" is directed by Larry Eastlack director of Youth Ministries at the Wellsville United Methodist Church. Gilbert B. Parker is pianist and Miss Pam Bucher is assistant pianist. Kathie Attwood is guitarist and Rod Cline, sound technician.

The public is cordially invited to the concert. A free-will offering will help defray costs.
