It Seemed Like Only Yesterday

This year the Senior Class at Andover Central School is minus one. One year ago a boy died in a car accident. His name was Michael Deming.

Mike had no enemies. He liked everyone and everyone liked him. He was a great attribute to our school. He could make you laugh when you were feeling low. He was always there to help you. Now Mike is only a memory. His death was a great blow to his fellow students. Each and every person mourned for him. It seemed like only yesterday that I heard his laugh in the hall. It seemed like only yesterday that I saw him walking down the street.

Mike still lives in our hearts. He may be gone, but the memory of him will never die.

Betty Crocker Exam

by Elaine Bronson

Once again our senior girls have an opportunity to compete for scholarships sponsored by General Mills through the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. This test is given nationally to all senior girls. It is based on questions related to personal and family living in today's world. Our girls participated in this exam Tuesday afternoon.

To All Parents

"I'll lend you for a little time, a child of Mine". He said, For you to love the while he lives, and mourn for when he's dead, dead.

It may be six or seven years, or twenty two or three, But, will you, 'till I call for him, take care of him for me?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and should his stay be brief, You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief.

I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return.

But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.

I've looked this wide world over, in my search for teachers true, And from the throngs that crowd lives' land, I have selected you Now, will you give him all your love, nor think the labor vain

Nor hate me when I come to call, to take him back again?

I fancied that I heard you say: "Dear Lord, Thy will be done

For all the joy, Thy child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness we'll love him while we may,

And for the happiness we've known forever grateful stay.

But should the angels call for him, much sooner than we planned,

We'll brave the bitter grief that comes, and thy to understand."
