

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Miss Judy Halsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Halsey, became the bride of John Cady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cady, all of Greenwood, Saturday evening, December 4, 1971 in the West Jasper Wesleyan Methodist Church. The Rev. Merlin R. Loomis, performed the double ring ceremony at 7 p. m. Wedding music for the candlelight service was played by Mrs. Clair Rollins.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length satin gown fashioned with a portrait neckline, long tapered sleeves and an Empire waistline. Her illusion veil was held by a flower and a pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

Miss Christine Hovey of Greenwood, was maid-of-honor in a yellow chiffon gown trimmed with white daisy lace. She carried a bouquet of bronze and yellow pom-poms. Charles Austin of Greenwood, cousin of the bride, was Best Man.

A reception was held at the Greenwood American Legion Home for about 150 guests from Jasper, Troupsburg, Niagara Falls, Canisteo, Wellsville, Almond, Waterport and Titusville, Pa.

The bride attended Greenwood Central School. The bridegroom is a 1971 graduate of Greenwood Central School. He is employed at Suburban Motors in Hornell. The couple will live in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Meehan and son have rented the Walter Kernan home and moved from their trailer home in Whitesville the first week of December. He is a student at Alfred Ag-Tech and she works at St James Mercy Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cheesman bought 50 acres off Harlan Sherman on the Jasper Road this fall. They drilled a well and installed a trailer home on the Krusen Road and moved in with their daughter after Thanksgiving. They had lived several months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheesman. Mrs. Michael Cheesman returned to her teaching at Jasper Central after the first 10 weeks.

Miss Betty Elaine Pease of Williamson became the bride of Alan Cornelius Boss of Williamson, Saturday afternoon, November 27, 1971 at the Andover United Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease of West Greenwood and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Stanley Boss and the late Mr. Boss of Williamson.

The Rev. Gerald Wolter performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with bouquets of gold, brown and bronze pom-poms. Richard Godown of Andover was soloist and Mrs. Lawrence Godown of Andover, R. D., was organist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, where she was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a formal Empire peau de sole gown. Alencon lace adorned the high neckline, the front of the bodice and A-Line skirt and the Camelot sleeves. Matching lace with inserted satin ribbon edged the Chapel train which cascaded from a large bow. Her silk illusion bouffant veil was attached to a headpiece of rosettes, lace, pearls and crystals. She carried a colonial bouquet of white and bronze pom-poms.

Mrs. Dale Pease of Morrisville, RFD, was matron-of-honor for her sister-in-law. She wore a formal gown styled with an emerald green velvet bodice and Nile green chiffon skirt. Venise lace trimmed the high neckline, bodice front and wrists of the long sleeves. A Nile green lace floral headpiece with tulle veil completed her ensemble.

Walter Blankenberg of Williamson was Best Man. Ushers were Dale Pease, brother of the bride, and Douglas Sonnevill of Williamson, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Victorian in Hornell.

The bride selected a brown tweed suit, brown accessories and a corsage of yellow mums for her wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Boss are living on Old Ridge at Williamson. The bride is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and Rochester Business Institute. She is employed by Xerox Corporation. Her husband, a graduate of Williamson Central School, is self employed.

Out-of-town guests attended from Williamson, Newark, Wolcott, Rochester, Wellsville, Whitesville, Morrisville, Greenwood and Stamford Conn.

Mrs. James McCaffrey, Mrs. Charles Lewis and Mrs. Richard Wallace were hostesses Saturday night at the West Greenwood Grange Hall for a Community Shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Boss. There was a good attendance and the honor couple received many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt attended a silver anniversary party for Mr. and Mrs. William B. Johnson of Hornell at their home in Hornell, Sunday, December 5. Mrs. Hunt was maid-of-honor at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Dean Holt are parents of a daughter, Wendy Ann, born at the Bethesda Hospital Monday, December 6, 1971. She weighed 8 lbs. 1 1/2-oz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malin and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Holt.

Little Shelly Estelle Sluyter, new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jan Sluyter, was a patient at Children's Hospital in Buffalo for a week, returning home Sunday, December 5.

Sunday morning the Rev. Gerald Wolter Baptized the children James Robert, Amy Lynn, Laurie Ann, of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lounsbury at the United Methodist Church.

Saturday afternoon is the Sunday School Christmas Party and Sunday morning is the Christmas program at the United Methodist Church in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York.

Wednesday evening, December 22 is a joint Christmas Service at the Andover United Methodist Church. The Cantata, "The Carol of Christmas" by John Peterson will be presented.

Several from Greenwood attended the special program "Tell It Like It Is" at the Andover Methodist Church, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jackson and Dana Williams of Andover, attended the Christmas Concert Sunday evening at Alfred University. Their daughter, Starla Jackson took part in the Concert.

Mrs. Ruth York of Andover was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York and Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephens and Mrs. Albert Lamphier were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Foster.

PFC Edward Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen, Sr., arrived home Friday from Goodfellow AFB at San Angelo, Texas, for a 30-day enroute leave. He has been in one and a half years and leaves January 12 for Germany.

Seventeen members of the Grange met in their lodge rooms at the Masonic Hall Saturday night. A Christmas party was held after the meeting with gift exchange and refreshments.

The Order of Eastern Stars held their regular meeting at the lodge rooms of the Masonic Hall Monday night. It was the Christmas meeting with gift exchange and revealing of Secret Pals.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ryan had the misfortune to have their car stolen while visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Archie Stephens. Mrs. Ryan drove down to the Hardware Wednesday. She left her car motor running and went into the store. When she came out her car was gone. The County Sheriff was notified and is investigating. Nothing had been heard as of Monday. Mr. Ryan had to buy a car to take his family back to Trenton, N. J. Sunday. It was thought a hitch hiker, who was around that day took the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Wilson called on a sick friend at Angelica, Sunday.

The Rexville and Bennetts Creeks Dairylea Locals held their annual meeting at the Greenwood United Methodist Church Thursday. Turkey dinner was served to forty members by the WSCS. New Officers elected for the Rexville Locals were:

Tom Harkenrider, President
Paul Harkenrider, Vice-President
Barbara Smith, Secretary-Treasurer

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McNeill, Sub District Delegates

Ernest Scribner retired as President of the Bennetts Creek Local.

New Officers elected were:
Laverne Stephens, President
Dale Lamphier, Vice-President
Wayne Warriner, Secretary and Treasurer
Myra Campbell, Sub District Delegate and Dale Lamphier, Wayne Warriner, Directors for 3 years.

Certificates for honorary members were given to John Rogers, George Williamson in absentia and Clarence Stephens. It was voted to give $10 to the Dairy Festival and $10 to Greenwood Central School Memorial Scholarship Fund. The elections were held separately then the group got together for speakers. Allen Gilmore of Bath, Fieldman and Bernard Watkins of Little March, Pa., Director for 2 counties.

Word was received of the sudden death of the Rev. Donald Peck 57 at the Rochester United Methodist District Parsonage on Highland Parkway last Sunday, December 5. He was Pastor in Greenwood in 1940 for three years. He was appointed District Superintendent of Rochester in April. A Memorial Service was held at Asbury First Methodist Church in Rochester, Friday with Bishop Ralph Ward and the other four District Superintendents taking part. Douglas and Richard York of West Greenwood attended the Memorial Service. Rev Peck was survived by his wife, Janette and a daughter, Cheryl, a brother and a sister, Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York, Puth York of Andover and Miss Grace Young went to Rochester to call on Mrs. Peck. They called on Mr. and Mrs. Roger York at Leroy on the way home.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School for the week of December 13 - 17 are:

MONDAY — Hamburg with Roll, Buttered Peas, Potato Puffs, Fruit, Choc or White Milk

TUESDAY — Chili Con Carne, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Cabbage Salad, Fruit, Choc or White Milk

WEDNESDAY — Jonesburger, relishes, Slice Cheese, Apple Crisp, Buttered Corn, Choc or White Milk

THURSDAY — Christmas Dinner, Turkey with Gravy on Mashed Potatoes, Cranberry Sauce, Sweet Potatoes, Rolls, Waldorf Salad, Ice Cream, Choc or White Milk

FRIDAY — Soup, Toasted Cheese Sandwich, Tossed Salad, Pudding with Pineapple Ring, Choc or White Milk

The Christmas program will be presented Monday night, December 20 by Mrs. Presly and the Music Department.

Tuesday night the basketball team was roundly beaten by Andover Central 90 - 37. Mike McCormick was high scorer with 13 points. Friday night the teams went to Cambell and were defeated 50 - 40. Steve Moore was high scorer with 11 points. This week the teams went to Whitesville Tuesday night and Savona comes here Friday.

Christmas vacation begins Wednesday, December 22.

Thursday evening December 9 Mrs. Ross Woodworth was given a surprise birthday party by her family. Refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Woodworth Mr. and Mrs. Dale Woodworth and family of Hornell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodworth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ormsby and family and Wilson Woodworth. The honored guest received some nice presents.

The Ambulance took Mort Thompson to the Bethesda Hospital Wednesday where he is a medical patient. The Ambulance took Mrs. Laura Chamberlain from the Fitch Nursing Home to the Bethesda Hospital, Tuesday.

Dear Jim:

Just a little hint . . . but Ludden's Shoe Store in Wellsville have the biggest selection of slippers and snow-boots in the area. They will gift wrap and exchange too!

Love,

DONNA

P. S. — In fact . . . I would even like a Ludden Gift Certificate.

Christmas Flowers and Greens

KERTON FLORIST

167 North Main Street

Wellsville, N. Y.

Phone: 593-4443