

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

The Music Department of Greenwood Central School presented "Christmas Comes To Our School", Monday evening, December 21 at 7:30 p. m., under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Presley, music director.

A Christmas Carol Pageant was presented by Grades 4, 5, 6 and 11. Grade 7 presented "Santa Was So Tired", and the Girls' Chorus sang a variety of Christmas numbers.

Mrs. Presley was assisted by Mrs. Eleanor Lamphier, Mrs. Shirley Cook, Mrs. Nancy Barber and Mrs. Ann Zushin, elementary teachers.

The program was planned as the regular December meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association. Parents and friends of the district attended.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School for the week of December 20 - 24 were:

MONDAY - Goulash, Buttered Green Beans, Bread and Butter Slice Cheese, Fruit Cocktail, choc or white Milk

TUESDAY - Soup, Crackers, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Fruit Cookie, choc or white Milk

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday - No School.

The Basketball Teams lost Tuesday 65 - 53 to Whitesville. Halsey and Brewster each had 13 points.

Friday night the boys lost 73 - 71 at Savona Central. McCormick was high scorer with 24 points.

The Junlor Girl Scouts with Leader, Mrs. Louise Ahearn, had their Christmas meeting at the school Wednesday afternoon. The girls finished a gift for their parents and Mrs. Ahearn gave each one a gift. Refreshments were served to 19 girls and leader.

The Brownies with leader Mrs. Sharon Harkenrider and helper, Mrs. Mattie Lounsberry held a Christmas party and gift exchange Wednesday after school in the basement of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Refreshments were served to 18 girls and two leaders.

Greenwood Central School Faculty and School Personnel and guests, held a Christmas dinner party at the Victorian Rooms at Hornell Wednesday night. The Faculty presented gifts to member of the Personnel and Town Road Crew.

Jesse York, 68, died Thursday, December 9, 1971, at the Williamsport, Pa., Hospital, following a long illness. He was born in Greenwood, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur York. He was in oil well drilling for many years. He was survived by his wife, Elizabeth Dean York and a daughter, Miss Dorothy York at Williamsport a daughter, Mrs. Marian York Schnell of Youngsville, Pa., a son Milford York of Kanona, N. Y., two sisters, Mrs. Carroll Wallace and Mrs. Merel Green, both of Greenwood and a brother, Burrell York of Trenton, N. J. Also 7 grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford York attended the funeral at Williamsport Sunday, December 12. Burial was Arkansas.

Mrs. Mary T. Young, 90, died, Friday, December 19, 1971 at Sands Point Nursing Home at Port Washington, Long Island, after a long illness.

She was born in Greenwood, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward. When she retired, she returned to Greenwood from Syracuse, for about 15 years and has been in the nursing home over six years. She was a member of the Greenwood United Methodist Church.

She was survived by a son, Dexter Tilroe of Manhasset, Long, Island; a step-son and a step-daughter of Syracuse and 2 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the United Methodist Church in Greenwood at one o'clock Monday. The Rev. Gerald Wolter officiated. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Francis Acker attended the wedding of his grandson, Daniel Wyatt and Cathy Bancroft at the Canisteo Presbyterian Church at 8 p. m. Friday, December 17, 1971.

Mrs. Carroll Wallace went with her son, Charles Wallace of Andover, to Sayre, Pa., Tuesday to visit Mrs. Charles Wallace, who had surgery at the hospital.

Danfel Richmond, of West Greenwood, recently called on Merle Case at Angelica. Mr. Case is very active in the New York State Steam Engine Association.

Mrs. Florence Moore returned home Thursday after spending several days with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Fenti and family at East Henrietta, also visited an aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Doty left Monday for a Florida visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Greene returned home Thursday after a three weeks trip to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Donaldson are coming home from Florida to spend Christmas with their daughter at the family home. Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson have recently sold the farm house and the Guy Donaldson house to Maynard and Wama Jundt.

Mrs. Josephine Kruger, who is teaching in Savona, came Saturday to visit her son, William Kruger, on her way home to Savona.

Sgt. James Wallace left Monday, Dec. 20 for Udorn Air Base, Thailand, where he will be stationed for 12 months. He has been in Service 2 1/2 years and was home for 30 days. Last Friday Sgt. and Mrs. Wallace and daughter, entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Whittel of Fexville, Pa. at an early Christmas. Mrs. Wallace announced the Wallace family at a gathering last Sunday night.

At the meeting of the administrative Board at the United Methodist Church last Sunday night, the following resolution was made:

The Greenwood United Methodist Church requests that further donations for Goodwill Industries be held at home until a date for collection is announced. Such a date will be announced one week prior to the next meeting date. The truck comes from Spring and in the Fall.

(Continued on Page 8)

THE ANDOVER NEWS

Published Weekly by The News Printing House, Andover, N. Y. Owners, Andover, N. Y. Entered as Second Class Matter at the Post Office at Andover, N. Y., under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879. Subscription Price $3.50 a year

Merry Christmas

TO ALL OUR GOOD FRIENDS

It's always a pleasure to greet you and wish you the best of the season!

Iroquois Telephone Corporation

Happy Holidays

FROM THE DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND STAFF OF

THE CITIZENS

AND TRUST COMPANY

Member of Federal Reserve System - Federal Reserve Bank