1945 "Brings Worst Storm of Winter with high winds and drifting snow. Andover Central School was closed Tuesday due to impassible roads which drifted full as fast as Highway Superintendent Gath and his equipment could open them. New Year's night found Skuse's Garage-Wrecker busy towing cars on Main Street. Near zero weather added to the discomfort to those who had to brave the weather to go to work.

An interesting letter from PFC Carl "Mike" Honegger who now is in India tells of his dealings with the Indians who he claims are harder to beat in a "swap" than the Andover boys.

In a V-Mail letter from PFC Clifford Bixby who was recently transferred to an English Hospital from France, says I found my first Andover boy over here after all these months overseas. He is Claude Shelman.
