Editorial

PREPARE FOR A BETTER YEAR — 1975

The month of January owes its name to the ancient Roman deity, Janus, god of doorways as well as god of the beginning of any important undertaking.

Janus was two-faced, not because he was double-dealing or false, but rather because he stood guard at the gates of Rome. One face turned to the front; the other to the back. Therefore, none could enter or leave Rome without his knowing it.

January, then, as appropriateness named Janus; for it is the beginning of a very important undertaking: a new year. Additionally, since he faces both to the front and to the back of the entrance to the city, he symbolically looks back on the year just ended and forward to the year beginning.

So look back with Janus to 1974. Reflect on the sorrows and joys of the past. Further, consider what you have learned during that year. Then look forward to 1975 with renewed courage based on the mistakes of the past and the knowledge resulting from each experience.

And with Janus, prepare for an even better year.

Snow Trails

DON'T SPOIL THE FUN OF SNOWMOBILE RIDING BECAUSE OF CARELESSNESS OR BAD DECISIONS. BEFORE STARTING ANY TRAIL, TAKE THE TIME TO STUDY THE TERRAIN. IF AVAILABLE, AN AREA MAP IS MOST HELPFUL. OTHERWISE, CONTACT LOCAL AUTHORITIES OR SNOWMOBILE CLUB MEMBERS.

ONCE YOU'RE OUT ON THE TRAIL, BE CAREFUL NOT TO STRAY. THE MERCURY SNOWMOBILE AUTHORITIES ALSO SUGGEST THAT YOU DILIGENTLY CONTROL YOUR SPEED. THIS IS ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT DURING NITE TRAIL RIDES. IF YOU'RE NOT CAREFUL, YOU'LL OVERDRIVE YOUR HEADLIGHTS, MAKING IT IMPOSSIBLE TO REACT QUICKLY ENOUGH TO TRAIL MARKERS OR CHANGING TRAIL CONDITIONS.

PRIVATE PROPERTY NO SNOWMOBILING

SHOW APPROPRIATE COURTESY AT ALL TIMES. NEVER ALLOW PRIVATE PROPERTY OR THE RIGHTS OF OTHERS TO BE VIOLATED. REMEMBER, IT'S YOUR TRAIL TO ENJOY.
