The Christian & Missionary Alliance Church of Andover will have as guest at the 7:30 p. m. service on Friday, April 11, 1975, the Rev. ANGELO LO VALLO, an official representative of Christ's Mission, Inc., Hackensack, New Jersey.

Rev. Lo Vallo was born in Dunmore, Pennsylvania, attended public schools there and afterwards studied at the University of Scranton, and St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1936, Rev. Lo Vallo was awarded a full-paid scholarship to matriculate at the International Seminary of the Collegio Brignoli Sale Negrami located in Genoa, Italy. After being ordained in Italy on May 18, 1940, he returned to the United States and served as assistant pastor and administrator in the Scranton, Pennsylvania Diocese. Later after several years of restudy, certain serious theological doubts were resolved within the context of Scripture alone and Rev. Lo Vallo resigned from the Roman Catholic Church and priesthood. He is currently a member of the editorial staff and Director of the Extension Department of Christ's Mission, Inc.

The Mission (founded in 1882), is a place of refuge devoted to helping former Roman Catholic clerics, a center for Protestant-Catholic information, and publisher of "Christian Heritage" magazine which deals with relevant theological questions from both a scholarly, evangelical, and popular viewpoint.
