Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

Well Folks, things have been rather hectic in the Family Department but now that the new Mother and Baby Boy are both doing fine we can again turn our attention back to "bread and butter" things as well as groceries.

In the meat line several cuts of beef are still being featured at low prices — but don't count on it for much longer as it is reported that beef prices will start to climb. Family steak is on special and this week at $1.39 and ground chuck is still 89c per pound, and boneless-rump roasts are going for $1.69. — In the pork line, bacon is being featured at 99c per pound and of course that is for this week only.

In the vegetable department Florida white jumbo grapefruit are specially priced at 5 for $1 with fresh watermelon featured at 17c per pound.

In the canned grocery department one brand of coffee is less than $1 per pound and there are several big buys on other canned goods.

Well, guess that wraps things up for now so, see you all next week.

A Note of Appreciation and Gratitude

Briggs, Leonard S.

The family of the late Leonard S. Briggs wish to take this means of acknowledgement so as to be certain not to exclude anyone unknowingly, — to express our deep appreciation for the outpourings of sympathy expressed in so many various ways to us in our recent bereavement. We shall always be deeply grateful to the faithful friends and neighbors who sent him cards, letters, and books. We especially wish to thank those friends who called to see him at his home during his three years of illness. It comforted him so much to be remembered even tho he was too ill to participate in church and village activities. We, his family, shall never forget your kindness and consideration for him.
