

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

A television camera, to be used with the Media Center of Greenwood Central School, was the project approved by the Parent Teacher Association at the regular meeting Thursday evening.

The group voted to give three hundred dollars to the school to form the basis of a fund to purchase the TV camera. The money to be used was raised by a dinner which was held last October.

Mrs. Virginia York, Librarian of Greenwood Central School, presented a program of slides showing the development of the school's media center from 1908, when the library was basically books to today's modern media center with reference materials and audio visual aids including television and taped TV programs.

The meeting was the first official meeting for the newly elected officers. Wayne Brewster is starting a second term as president, while Robert Neuenhauer and Mrs. Marcia Litch remain in the posts of vice president and secretary. Mrs. Eleanor Lanphier is the new treasurer.

The annual PTA picnic has been scheduled for June 8 at the school. Mrs. Melinda Edward, program chairman will be in charge of the picnic.

The Interfaith Church of Hornell, N. Y., was the setting for a double ring ceremony on April 26, 1975 at 8:00 p. m.

Miss Jo Ann Pond of Canisteo and Duane Warriner of Greenwood, were united in Holy matrimony by the Rev. Howard B. Warriner, uncle of the groom. The bride was brought up by Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cline of Canisteo and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Warriner of Greenwood.

Mrs. James Jackson of Cameron presided at the organ. The Misses Dawn and Darlene Warriner, sisters of the groom, sang a duet.

Mrs. Nancy Boag of Hornell was Matron-of-Honor and W. Michael Keegan of Dansville, was best man. Ushers were Edmond and John Warriner, uncles of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was served in the church basement for 100 guests. Miss Patty Hawkins of Hornell, was in charge of the guest registry. Mrs. Richard Warriner, aunt of the groom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Polly O'Dell of Canisteo, cut the cake.

Out-of-town guests attended from Cameron, Canisteo, Dansville, Greenwood, Jasper, Mt. Morris, Olean and Pavilion.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Woodworth (Sharon Hunt) of Mt. Morris, are parents of a son, born Monday, April 28 at the Bethesda Hospital in Hornell. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodworth.

Leo D. Cummings, 67 of R.D. 1, Canisteo, was dead on arrival at the St. James Mercy Hospital in Hornell, after he was stricken at home, Friday. He was a life-long resident of Canisteo and had been a wood worker at the former Corbin Wood Working Corp., in Hornell. He retired about three years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Bernice Hale Cummings to whom he had been married for 45 years; one son, Robert Dean of R.D. 4, Wellsville; three daughters, Mrs. Burdette (Joyce) Mullen, R.D. 1, Campbell, Mrs. Barrell (Joan) Brown of Greenwood and Mrs. Raymond (Sandra) Tamm of R. D. 1, Hornell; one sister, Mrs. Mildred Meyers of Tucson, Ariz.; 11 grandchildren.

Friends called at the H. P. Smith Funeral Home in Canisteo, Sunday afternoon and evening. Funeral and committal services were held there Monday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Robert Price, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Canisteo, officiating. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Canisteo.

The Greenwood Central School Booster Club has been active for a few weeks. A group of mothers has been working in the Home Economics Room at least one night a week to sew. The mothers and some senior girls have the sewing project of making 18 new green and white uniforms for the Color Guard and Majorettes of the Marching Band. They had a deadline as the uniforms were needed Saturday for the Hot Dog Day Parade at Alfred. Money for the materials was raised from the sale of popcorn at basketball games and other events. The Band Boosters have cleaned all the band uniforms. Mothers will work at the June 6 dinner party and concert to be presented by the Jazz Ensemble of the band.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School for the week of May 5-9 are:

MONDAY - Barbecued Beef on Bun, Buttered Spinach, Date Nut Bread, Fruit, choc or white Milk.

TUESDAY - Hamburg with Gravy on Mashed Potatoes, Buttered Green Beans, Bread and Butter, Fruit, choc or white Milk.

WEDNESDAY - Hot Dog with Roll, K - 3, Tacos 4th - 12; French Fries, Tossed Salad, Fruit, choc or white Milk.

THURSDAY - Cornish, Calf Head Salad, Peanut Butter Sandwich, Scooter Pie, choc or white Milk.

FRIDAY - Soup, Tuna Fish Sandwich, Celery & Carrot Sticks, Jello, Cake, choc or white Milk.

Arkport Central School won the Track Meet Wednesday at Greenwood Central School with 90% points. Avoca received 54% and Greenwood 36%. Rollins was second in 120 YD, Meehan first in Shot, Greenwood was second in the 880 Relay, Moore third in Long Jump. Rollins third in 330 YD, Losey first in Discus, Hunt second in Triple Jump and Dytche second in 2 Mile Run.

The Boys Baseball Team lost to Jasper 15 - 4, Tuesday.

The Greenwood Central School Band went to Alfred Saturday to march in the Hot Dog Parade.

Mike Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, joined the Hornell Bki-A-Thon Sunday, April 27, for a 30-mile trip for Polio. He came in second and had a good number of sponsors.

Sunday School children sang a group of songs at the United Methodist Church. Service. Sunday morning. Miss Lisa Woodworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Woodworth, played the organ.

The Thunderbird District Scout Spring Camporee was held at Mossey Brook Park, Bath, over the week-end. Sixteen boys of Troop 62 went for the week-end. Taking the boys' Friday afternoon was Scoutmaster Ed Mullen. Gary Moore on the Council Executive Scout Board and Bill Schwartz and Reg Baker, Assistant Scoutmasters Mullen and Baker stayed with the boys. Three boys on a raft, Paul Zuehl, Mike Moore and Lincoln Bise received their picture in the Sunday Spectator.

The Thunderbird District Cub Olympics were held at Mossy Brook Park in Bath Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Higgins went to take five boys: Dean Higgins, Pat Moore, Denny Coates, Tracy Rollins and Jamie Merry. Mrs. Mary Mullen went early to help with Registration and helped conduct activities. In the boat race Regatta, Danny Dean and Pat each took a little model boat to race. They all took part in the Olympics.

Greenwood Central School Alumni Officers have set the date for the annual banquet at the school for Saturday, May 24, 7:30 p. m. Gerald Mullen will entertain with his "Magic Acts." Officers making arrangements are: Sally Coates, President; Anne Marie Schwartz, Vice President; Wayne Brewster, Secretary; and Perry Hulse, Treasurer. They ask that alumni send confirmation and money to Patsy Hulse by May 18. If you didn't receive an invitation, write to an officer.

John J. Hornell was a patient at Bethesda Hospital, Hornell, two days last week for tests.

From Our Files

24. Seymour Dexter was born in Independence, the son of Daniel Dexter of that place.

Word came to Andover from Shinglehouse of the death of Mrs. John Conner, who suffered a stroke of paralysis April 4 from which she never rallied. She is survived by three daughters; two sons; 8 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. She was the mother of Mrs. Clarence Kemp formerly of this place.

The Auditorium management gave the big Saturday evening audience a surprise. Miss Alice Rogers, Andover's talented violinist, supported the fine work of Mrs. Florence Bloss, pianist. The two instruments worked together beautifully. This new feature will be continued. The musical program is almost worth the price of admission.

Elton L. Greene of Andover and Alberta E. Taylor of Cambria Township, were united in marriage Wednesday evening, April 15 at the Presbyterian Manse by Rev. H. F. Woodard.

A total of 30 boys from all sections around Andover have now enrolled in the Potato Club. Each member of the club will do his best to grow good potatoes. Next fall prizes will be awarded to the boys who grow and exhibit the best potatoes and some reward will be given to every boy who completes his work. The Certified Seed arrived Thursday morning. Each boy who entered the contest will plant two bushels on his farm, one bushel will be Certified Seed which is being furnished to the boys by members of the Andover Chamber of Commerce. Each boy receiving a bushel of Certified Seed will return a bushel of market potatoes in the fall.

Mother's Day is Sunday May 10. We had a fine snow storm yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gavin of Piney Hill are parents of a son born Sunday night, May 3.

J. C. Lever began work in the Burrows National Bank this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Palmiter of Alfred Station are parents of a daughter, Doris Irene, born May 2.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Foxbridge of Pulaski, N. Y., are parents of a son, born May 4.

40 YEARS AGO

May 3, 1935

J. H. Backus & Son, Publishers William B. O'Connell, dropped dead April 22, 1935 about 11 a. m. after entering his office from a trip

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Higgins who spent the winter at Captain Kidds Campgrounds, Kissimmee Florida, arrived home Sunday April 27.

Mrs. Lloyd Mann and her sister, Mrs. Blanche Gulliver left Monday May 5 to drive to Santa Maria, California to visit another sister Mrs. Alice Herland. Mrs. Gulliver plans to stay in California.

Glenn Campbell entered the Bethesda Hospital, Thursday.

Michelle Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duke, returned home from the St. James Mercy Hospital, Saturday, where she had been a patient ten days.

Mrs. Bessie Houghtaling of Christian Hollow Road, returned home Saturday from the St. James Mercy Hospital where she was a patient for 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lynn Redmond and son, Mark, of Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, spent from Tuesday to Saturday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond of West Greenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Redmond went to the Rochester Airport Tuesday to meet their son and took the family back to the Airport, Saturday.

Mrs. Ruth York of Andover was a Sunday dinner guest of her son Mr. and Mrs. Charles York and went with them to take Judy York back to Greece.

Correction: Miss Permelia White was with her mother, Elizabeth, Mrs. Benson, Charlotte, when Mrs. Catherine Herold visited her son Gene Herold and family at Look-out Mountain, Tenn.

to the Depot. He was born in Andover, October 1, 1870 a son of John and Catherine Donahue O'Connell. His parents died when he was a small child and later he lived with Patrick Riley on South Hill until a grown man. On February 18, 1903 he married Miss Minnie Riley and to them were born twin daughters, Cecelia and Gertrude, all of whom survive. Burial was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.

The Mid-Semester Scholarship list at Houghton College included the name of Miss Ruth Walton of Andover in the highest ranking group. Miss Walton is now a member of the freshman class at Houghton.

Miss Kathryn Gallagher, daughter of Mrs. Eliza Gallagher and Daniel H. Mulcahy, were united in marriage April 29.

There will be a public reception for Rev. A. D. Sheppard and family at the Baptist Church, Friday evening.

Superintendent of Schools, W. G. Pope's group of Willing-Independence Teachers will hold their last Spring Conference today at the Crittenden School with Miss Lillian Butler, Teacher. At this time they will report on the professional book which each one had to read this year.

About 125 sat down to a fine supper put on by the Andover Rebekah ladies last Thursday night. The supper was the first feature of a very pleasant evening spent by members of the Andover Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges and their families in the joint observance of the 116 anniversary of the Order. After the supper an appropriate program was rendered, Friday evening the Odd Fellows put on the first of a series of Cara Partys. The following received prizes: Contract Bridge, Mrs. Edith Holmes; Five Hundred, 1st, Mrs. Frances Beebe, 2nd, Mrs. Belle Bloss; Euchre, Mrs. Francis Vickers; Pedro, Charles Hammond Rummy, Mrs. Clara Howland and Pinochle, A. L. Rogers. The Door Prize was given to Mrs. Marie Hammond.

A joint program of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and all the Missionary Societies of Andover, was held Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. Church. A program was presented to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the founding of the W.C.T.U.

Mrs. Chloé Bailey and Amos Gardner, both of Greenwood, were united in marriage April 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Knight of Ithaca and Miss Grace Young and Dwight Young were Sunday guests of Miss Ellen Young.

Rural Teachers of the Town of Greenwood and West Union held a Conference at the Marsh School last Friday afternoon. The committee in charge was Mrs. Charlotte McCutcheon, Miss Permelia White, Miss Frances Nearly and Miss Mary Horton. Following the reading of papers by several of the Teachers, a question box led to a most interesting discussion.

The residence of Howard Perry corner of Elm and Barney Streets, is being improved by the addition of a sun porch.

Tickets for the Mother and Daughter Banquet to be held at the Presbyterian Church on May 14 at 7 p. m. may be obtained from Helen Folsing or Mrs. Wm. Lang.

The storage room of the Carney General Store at Elm Valley, was broken into and robbed of 4 sacks of flour and 1 can of evaporated milk one night recently. The burglary was discovered the following morning by the proprietor. Entrance had been made by forcing a window in the rear of the store. Price value was 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry and family have moved from the house owned by Mrs. Lawrence Owen on Water Street to the Corwin house on Baker Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hostey are parents of a son, Donald Eugene born April 29 at their home on Chestnut Street.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Brown moved their household goods to Pointed Post, Tuesday, where Mr. Brown and son, Fay, will conduct a Barber Shop.

Great courtesy was shown in Andover, Thursday by the appearance on our streets of a Hansa Automobile made in Germany. It was brought to Andover by Mrs. Herman Woy who is visiting friends here. She will be remembered as Carolyn Rhinehart, formerly of Andover.

Mrs. Emma Church of Lockport writes The News of the death of her two sisters, Mrs. Alice Larson of Joliet, Ill., who died February 6, 1935 and Mrs. Viola Brown Lopes of Los Angeles, California, April 15, both ladies have visited in Andover.

Word was received in Andover of the death of John Boyd at his home in Henderson, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, Jr. and daughter, Florence and Mark Sheppard arrived there Saturday night, driving the entire distance of 600 miles from Andover to Henderson in one day.

Only three different agents visited South Hill on Monday. Mr. Kramer of Whitesville in the interest of the Hough Hatchery of Canisteo; a Hornell man representing a Western Food Product Company and a Magazine solicitor. Some choice.

A. D. Fuller, J. C. Lever and R. O. Snyder were in Buffalo, Saturday where they attended the New York State Bankers' Association Meeting.

Miss Florence Williams was a guest of Rev. and Mrs. John McIntosh at Whitney Point this week.

Oliver Kemp was in Hornell Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week where he played with the high school director, Mr. Bremer for the Ellis Minstrel Show held at the High School.

Mrs. John Lever and daughters, Marion and Dorothy, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Graves at Panama, returned home Sunday with Mr. Lever who had attended the New York State Bankers' Association held in Buffalo, Saturday.

Miss Ruth Robinson returned to Orange, N. J., Sunday after passing the Spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson.

The Board of Education has granted Miss Mildred Farnen a release from her contract so she may accept a position with the Eastman Kodak Company of Rochester. Miss Farnen's work began April 22. Mrs. Joyce VanOxx has been hired to fill the vacancy created by the release of Miss Farnen. Mrs. VanOxx taught commercial subjects for four years in the Hornell High School and comes to Andover very well recommended.

Monday morning 15 children reported to Mrs. Alvord for the beginning of Kindergarten work.

30 YEARS AGO

May 3, 1945

Claire C. Backus, Publisher

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Greene were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dystra of Caledonia, Sunday. Their son, "Bob" was home on furlough after two years in China during which time was with Sgt. William Dugan, son of Mrs. Greene. Mr. Dystra will return to China June 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Trowbridge and daughters, Myrtle Ann and Mrs. Lou Arnold of Syracuse, were Sunday afternoon guests of their niece, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ordway and family.

Mrs. Ettie Wilson of Olean spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Goodridge.

Edward Francis Joyce died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rose Slocum, April 30, 1945. He was born in Andover February 22, 1945 the son of Harry and Rosanna Bines Joyce and always made his home here where he was associated with the Joyce Hotel. He is survived by one brother, Harry, Sr.; one sister, Mrs. Rose Slocum; a nephew, Harry, Jr., all of Andover; two nieces, Mrs. Wilbur Sly of Englewood, N. J., and Mrs. Carl Monroe of Buffalo. Burial was in Valley Brook Cemetery.

T. Sgt. Charles R. Lenhart, 24 brother of Mrs. Jack Rosintoski, who has been with the 27th Infantry Division in the South Pacific for almost three years, was killed in action March 30 at Luzon according to a telegram received from the War Department by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Lenhart of Whitesburg, Pa. He was born in Whitesburg, April 29, 1920 and attended the Whitesburg Public School. He is survived by his parents; his wife; and a 2 1/2 year old son, Charles R. Lenhart, Jr., whom his father has never seen; 3 brothers and 3 sisters. T. Sgt. Lenhart was inducted into the U. S. Army in February 1942, receiving

(Continued on Page 5)