

Dr. William G. Stowart

Andover Resident Awarded Doctorate

William D. Stewart of Andover, assistant professor of Secretarial Science at State University Agri-cultural and Technical College at cultural and Technical Course at Afred, has been extended the Doctor of Education (Ed.D.) degree by Arizona State University.

The Affred educator, who received formal notification of the award this month, titled his doctoral thesis Correlating Personality England. With Shorthand Factors With Shorthand ality Achi

Dr. Stewart resumed his teaching duties at Alfred State College last fall after specifing the 1973-74 skiddenic year as a graduate teaching essistant at the University of Anksons.

while at Arizona, he was honored last spring by being selected ar "Outstending Teaching Assistant." Unity four of the 55 teaching assistants at the university received the award.

Divisors Stewart joined the Al-

Professor Stewart joined the Al-fred State College faculty in 1963 fred State College factalty in 1963 as an instructor and was promoted to assistant professor in 1967. He wide his left the faculty to teach in foreign lands; once in Ethiopia and once in Unimes under United States AID (Agency For International Devolutional programs.

A matter of Ethiopia D. Stewart is a 1966 grassinate of Broome Technical Community College. He holds a bachelor's degree from Hartwick College in Onconta and a master's degree from Alfred University.

In the most few years, Dr

In the past few years, Dr Stewart has authored several arti-cles for professional journals in-cluding the "Journal of Business Education" and "Business Educa-tion World."

Professor Stewart is married to the former lonce Savage of Vestol. They have five children.

HI-HERALD

High Shool Honor Roll End of Third Marking Period April 17, 1975

FIRST HONORS: Pupils having an average of 90% in each of three major subjects with none below

85% Debra Baker Michael Bliss Lisa Brown Bob Burch Laura Burns Craig Dudge Brenda Empson Phydlia Freeland Shelly Grander Christine Los tamis Mulconery

Former Andover Man Receives Excellence Award

A Jamestown Community Col-lege biology professor and former resident of Andover has been namresident of Andover has been named a recipient of the State University of New York's Chancellor's Award, for Excellence in Teaching for 1974-75. In making the announcement, Dr. Ernest L. Boyer, Chancellor of the State University described—Professor R. Theodore Smith, a 1954 graduate of Andover Central School, as one of the most careflent. Teaching remiserers. excellent teaching professors in the State University of New York

Chancelor Boyer said the selection of Professor Smith to receive one of the statewide awards was made in a recommendation to him by a committee of distinguished scholars and the SUNY Board of Trustees, Smith will receive a one time grant of $500. Professor Smith has been at JCC

Professor Smith has been at JCC since 1980 and has been in active the the development of active programs related to the health actences and pre-professional education. He has served a chatman of the school's Blology Department.

The is now in this fourth term as Chatman as Character than the school's Blology Department.

a Chautangua County legislator and serves as chairman of the County Sewer Agency, Water Ag-ency and Finance Committee. He ency and Finance Committee. He has also segred as district director of the Soil Conservation service and as a member of the Board of Chautauqua Lake Regions, Inc. He also is President of the Board of Education of St. James School in Jamestown.

Professor Smith is an active campaigner in the field of employmental control and was the ronmental control, and was founder and first chairman of the Chautauqua County Action for Clean Air-Committee. Upon his election to his first term of of fice as a member of the Chautau-qua County Board of Supervisors in 1965, he began an immediate campaign to institute legislation campaign to institute legislation to improve the county's pollution-control standards. In 1972 he received an award entitled "Outstanding Educator in America for 1972", "for contributions to the advancement of higher education and service to the community." He was presented with the Disting uithed Service Award by the Jamestown Jaycees in 1908 for contempting community service through loyal, faithful and unselfish efforts resulting in lasting contributions to the community and nsn enters resurcing in lassing con-tributions to the community and the nation.

He also received a Certificate of Merit from the Soil Conservation Service in 1974 for "outstanding contribution to soil stewardship and conservation,"

Professor Smith received his R

Professor Smith received his B. A. degree from Syracuse University and has done graduate work at the University of North Carolina, Kansas State University, the State University of North Carolina University of Rochester Medical Center, St. Lawrence University, Afred University and Syracuse University. He and his wife, Pat and two sons, Kevin, 10, and Jeff, 3 reside at Donelson Road, Bustl. Professor Smith is the son of the late Mary Offenica Smith and Robert F. Smith who resides at 37 Em Street Professor Smith received his B

AND AND COURSE OF SHIRE

Appreciation

I wish to express my apprecia-tion to any triends, neighbors and relatives who sept me birthday cards and money.

Many Lee

Dates Claimed: e 5 - 6 — United Bresbyt omen's Rommage Sale. June 5 - 6 -

Geffer

Schedule Of Program

Events At Alfred

Events At Alfred

The 26-member Alfred University Chorus and the 50-voice University Chorus will present a combined concert. May 16 at 8:15 pm., if Associated Hall sufficient on the University than the Indian and the Indian State of the Indian State of the Indian State of the Indian India

A program of mental works for place, tramped and poice by Corell, Business Missing and Beeth vern will be artisently May 17 at 245 pm. in Howald Bull at Alfred University.

The public is invited to attend without charge.

Solution of New York City, piano; Jerry F. Thomas of New Hartford, Trumpet; Olin, Smith III of Syracuse, pieno; and Debra J. Rose of New Berlin, soptiano. Plano accompanists for the re-citas will be Thomas Dresselhouse of Manlins and Lisa C. Stark of Nutley, N. J. Nutley, N. J.

A jazz workshop and concert by the Ken McIntyre Quartet is scheduled this week-end (May 16-17) at the State University Agricultural and Technical College at

The quartet's appearance on-campus is part of the series of cultural programs sponsored jointly by Alfred State College and Al-fred University.

Secheduled for the college gymnessum, the coheert will be at 8:30 p. m. Saturday Tickets for the general public will be on sale that night.

Besides the concert, the quartet will participate in two free workwill participate in two free work-shops for young musicians in the

The first clinic and workshop will be from 2 p. m. to 4 p m. Friday and is for area high school musicians. Then the session will be repeated from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m. Saturday, this time for college students.

Both workshops will be at the college's student activities center and students planning to attend have been advised to bring their own instruments since they will have an opportunity to "sit in" with the quartet. Additional information about the workshops is available by contacting Profesor Joseph Canale. director of instrumental music at Alfred State College. McIntyre, who is a composer instrumentalist, and authority on

African-American music, is a pro-fessor of humanities at the State University College at Old Westbury.

Regarded as one of the major modern jazz composers and players, he has four recordings to his credit and has appeared at the country's top jazz festivals.
A graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music, McIntyre has taught at Smith College and is the recipient of a National Endowment for the Humanities grant to study the relationsities of African sturty the relationships of African music to Americans.

Members of the keyboard music faculty at Affred University will conduct a day-long workshop for area piano teachers May 23 in Howell Hall on the University campus.

The featured speaker will be Vincent Lenti, director of the prep-aratory department of the East-man School of Music, Rochester, He will discuss basic piano tech-

An additional feature of the workshop will be displays by music publishers and music dealers.

Mrs. Eleanor Brown of the Alfred University music faculty is in charge of arrangements. There is a registration fee for participants.

May's the time to put your home in shape. ided repairs and improvements exceed your ready cash, stop in and ask about a de trans continue improvement loan: Toolo; material acc and labor can be covered by one quick loan, regayable in convenient monthly installments.

tast let us know your needs.

7

, 5r

The most bank for your money.

Whitesville