

From Our Files

age of 91% and Gerald Dolan with 90% average.

The First Grade has a new pupil Victor Clark from Wyoming.

The Juniors of Andover High School had their picnic at Lever's Cottage in Elm Valley, Monday evening.

Miss Ruth Baker visited friends in Belmont and Angelica, Saturday.

Merle Spicer took Charles Spicer and Norman Drew of Independence to the Circus in Hornell Saturday evening.

George Sackett, Manager of the A & P Store is spending the week at Lake Lamoka. Robert O'Boyle is in charge of the store during Mr. Sackett's absence.

Miss Doris Burdick of Alfred Station was a guest of Miss Rita Burns over the weekend.

Miss Dorothy Oakes of the Bethesda Hospital in Hornell, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Oakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Perry and daughter, Jeradine, motored to Sabinsville and Troupsburg, Sunday, where they called on Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lavelle and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schieber and daughter, Betty Ann of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, have been visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Oakes and family while they are on vacation in the States. They expect to sail from New York City for Brazil, June 8th.

Mrs. Carrie Slade was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clarke and also attended the Memorial Services at Independence, Friday night and Saturday she was accompanied by Ira Manroe and Eugene Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green, Mr. Howard Green and sons Howard, Dale and Clifford Green were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green of Perry, N. Y.

30 YEARS AGO

May 31, 1945

Claire C. Backus, Publisher

Robert Baker successfully passed the Navy physical examination this week and is now waiting call for Active Duty.

Lieut. Edward Brewster who has been serving with the U. S. Air Force overseas, is passing a leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster.

Richard Cronk Seaman First Class, returned to Sampson Naval Training Station, Sampson, N. Y., Monday night for further assignment following a leave passed with relatives and friends in this vicinity. Seaman Cronk is a grandson of Wilbur Cronk and a nephew of Mrs. Clare Jackson of Andover.

Cpl. Wilbur "Swig" Lehman of Fairfield Suisun Army Air Base, California, is spending a furlough with his father, H. E. Lehman and his brothers here in Andover.

Pvt. Fay Brown is now in Camp Blanding, Florida. He left Corning May 15.

Technical Sergeant Richard B. McAndrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McAndrew of Andover, has been promoted from the grade of Sergeant to his present grade.

The Serviceman's picture in the Andover News this week is Pte. Louis J. Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge, who is stationed at Camp Blanding, Florida.

Cheyl Lee Caple, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Caple died at the Jones Memorial Hospital May 24 following a short illness with pneumonia. She was born January 23, 1945. Besides her parents, she is survived by one brother Roy Caple. Burial was in Valley Brook Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mead are parents of a daughter, Charlotte Helen, born at the Tucker Maternity Hospital, Wellsville, May 25.

Miss Nancy Jane Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Snyder of Andover, will receive her A.B. degree from Lake Erie College, Painesville Ohio during the 86th Annual Commencement June 4. She has majored in Sociology and Physical Education.

NOTICE — Again this year it becomes necessary to warn local residents that the American Legion Park isn't a public playground and while there is no objection to small children visiting the Park, there is evidence of damage to shrubbery and the by older children using the Park as a playground, which must be stopped. American Legion Trustees.

Charles Lloyd Sr., has a white hen with such a strong motherly

Monahan-Storms

Oletha Storms and Russell Monahan, both of Andover, were united in marriage Saturday, May 24, 1975 by Lee Meyn, Justice of the Peace at the Meyn home.

Mrs. Charlotte Perry and Ronald Monahan, brother of the groom were their attendants.

Mrs. Monahan is the daughter of Mrs. Neil Callaghan and the late Mr. Callaghan and Mr. Monahan is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan.

intinct that she took charge of, and mothers a batch of four kittens. When the kittens get hungry the mother cat feeds them, then the old hen takes her under her wing also during the process and seem every much collected about the whole situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Rager called on her uncle Michael Gavin on Pingree Hill, Sunday.

Stillman Burdick, better known locally as "Tim" died at his home in Bren, California, May 20, 1945. He was born in Elm Valley in 1856 the son of Jeremiah and Carolyn Beebe Burdick, but left this vicinity as a young man, going to West Virginia where he was interested in oil fields. He returned 15 years ago and since then has made his home in Bren, California. He is survived by his wife; two sons and one daughter. Burial was in California.

Andover Central School received $31,699.39 as its share of the $433,000.77 distributed last week by County Treasurer Frank L. Gere in the final payment of their State Aid to Allegany County Schools.

Mrs. Robert Church and Mrs. Earle Greene attended the funeral of their cousin Forrest Robbins of Olean which was held at the M.E. Church in Whitesville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sackett are enjoying a two weeks vacation from the duties as Manager of the local A & P Store.

Miss Norma Perry won first prize in the local Poppy Selling Contest; Miss Louise Dunham, 2nd and Miss Joan Joyce, 3rd.

Mrs. Lee Meyn entertained at a family dinner Sunday in honor of the birthday of Mr. Meyn. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitmore of Silver Springs were among those present.

Mrs. Flora Brownell and daughter, Barbara arrived in Andover Sunday from Deland, Florida.

Mrs. S. Ina Rogers will present her pupils in a musical recital Sunday evening at the Andover Central School Auditorium. Among the pupils taking part are: Ann Marvel, Maxine Baker, Wilfred Davis, Jacqueline Vickers, Sandra Skuse, Sandra Bostwick, Phyllis Mitchell, Noel Hazzard, Donald Clark, John Baker, Betty Harris, John Burrows, Louise O'Dell, Gay Rogers, Harry Foster, Ernest Weirick, Ruth Bostick, Audrey Baker and Clara Hagan.

Andover won second in the County Track Meet held at Bolivar. Andover will be represented in Rochester by three — Jack Horan, Neil McCormick and Earl Gross.

On Tuesday, May 20 at 9 o'clock the Senior Class took over the School. The ceremony at 9 o'clock consisted of the traditional candle-light exercise, Class Will and Testament and the singing of the Class song, moving up for the next year. The singing was accompanied by Audrey Baker. Alta Hawk sang a few popular numbers accompanied by Clara Hagan who also led the Band as musical instructor. The Senior Class took over the classes for the morning and not much work was accomplished with laughter and teasing facts from doors along the hall every once in a while. School was let out at Noon for Memorial Day vacation.

Andover Grange No 1098 has placed a Memorial Sign and planted a tree on the C. Cole farm in Elm Valley designating the oldest Cemetery in Allegany County founded 150 years ago by the first settlers Nathaniel Dyke and Daniel Cole.

Mayor and Mrs. E. J. Allen were in Danville Saturday on business. Mrs. Conrad Church and two children left Tuesday to spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Alma C. Jones at Dotter, Alabama.

Mrs. Clifford Howland and son, Charles and Mrs. Grace Howland visited Miss Kathleen Howland in Emma over the weekend and attended the Open House at the Eclipse Plant.

Daugherty-Nichols

Miss Debra Lee Nichols, daughter of Mrs. Donald L. Nichols of Andover and the late Mr. Nichols, and Robert R. Daugherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Daugherty of Crestwood Circle, Danville, were united in marriage Saturday, May 10, 1975 in the Methodist Church in Keene, Ohio.

Before the altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and yellow mums, the Rev. William H. Hagan performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her brother, Ronald Nichols, the bride wore a dress she had designed and made of bridal satin with rows of vertical gathered lace. Empire waistline, scoop neckline and short cap sleeves. Yellow velvet bows bordered the skirt at each row of lace and a yellow velvet sash completed the dress. Her two-tier illusion veil was attached to a Juliet daisy cap. She carried white gladioli, yellow mums, baby breath accented with yellow streamers.

As Maid-of-Honor, Yvonne Mattion of Rush, New York, wore a dress of yellow satin with floral voile overlay, fashioned with an Empire waist, scoop neckline, short puffed sleeves and lace flounce. She carried yellow and bronze daisies with green streamers.

Eugene Boesger of Columbus, Ohio, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Nichols chose a light blue floor length polyester gown featuring long-sleeved, hip-length jacket accented with eyelet, with white accessories. She wore a pink carnation corsage. The mother of the groom, selected a green and white full length voile gown with long sleeves and white accessories. She wore a green carnation corsage.

A reception for about 150 guests was held at the Keene Grange. Guests included those from Wayland, Perkinsville, Danville, Johnsbury, Andover, Canadawaga, and Rush, New York; Columbus, and Coshocton, Ohio and Dallas, Tex.

The bridal table featured a white tablecloth with yellow streamers centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white frosting and yellow roses, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Kay Daugherty of Coshocton, Ohio, cousin of the groom, cut the wedding cake and also was in charge of the guest book.

Following short wedding trip to Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty are residing at 168 West Como Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

The bride is a 1971 graduate of Andover Central School and attended State University Agricultural and Technical College at Alfred. She is employed at City National Bank of Columbus as a Certificate of Deposit Specialist.

Her husband, a 1967 graduate of Danville Central School, served four years with the U.S. Coast Guard, one of which was in Vietnam and graduated from Alfred Tech in June, 1974 with an Associate Degree in Applied Science. He is employed at Lemox Industries, Inc., in Columbus, Ohio as an application technician.

Howland Retention

The 44th Annual Retention of the descendants of Hiram Howland was held Sunday, June 1, 1975 at the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson in Fulmer Valley.

Relatives were present from Genesee, Pa., Port Allegany, Pa., Bolivar, Pa., Frankfort, Belmont, Arkport and Andover.

After a delicious dinner, the business meeting was called to order by President James Jackson. The following were elected for 1975:

Mrs. Lawrence Howland of Port Allegany, Pa. — President

Mrs. Judy Getzlander of Port Allegany, Pa. — Vice-President

Margaret P. Wood of Andover — Secretary, Treasurer and Historian

The date to hold the 1976 Retention will be the first Sunday in June at the same place.

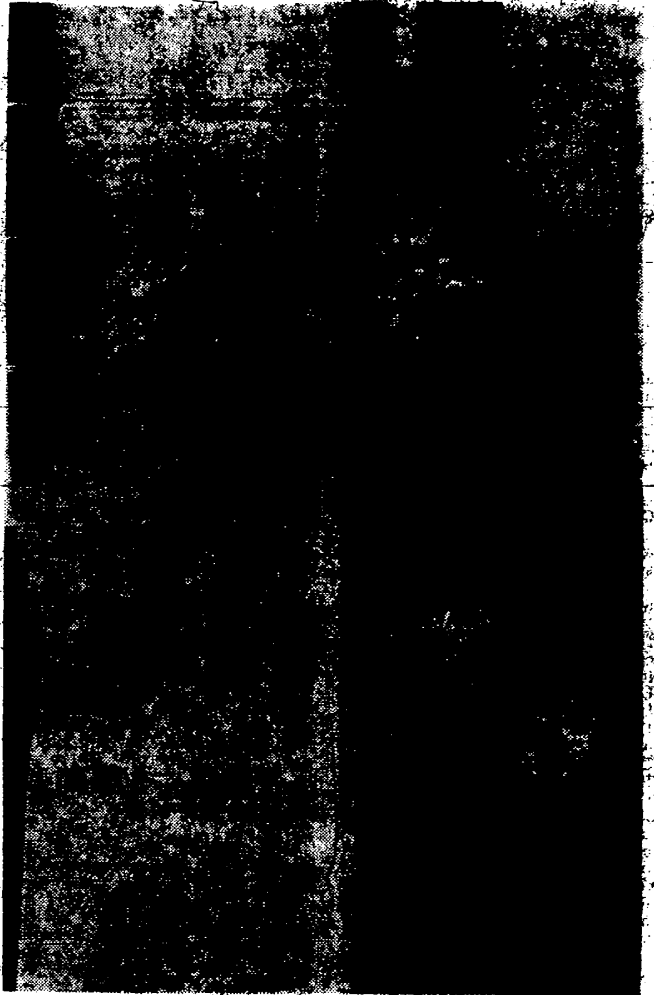

Margaret P. Wood, Sec.

Robert A. Brownell

Robert A. Brownell, Jr., 18, of 18 Wheeler Pl., West Seneca, died Sunday, May 31, 1975. He was the son of Robert A. and Phyllis (McNeill) Brownell.

He is survived by his parents, two brothers, David A. Brownell and Michael A. Brownell, and one sister, Pamela Brownell, all of West Seneca.

Funeral services were held at the Leonard, Ours & Leonard Inc.,

Carol Ann Weber and Terry Lee Green Exchange Wedding Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Lee Green

Miss Carol Ann Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Weber of 34 Barney Street, Andover, New York, was united in marriage April 26, 1975 with Terry Lee Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Green of R.D.4, Wellsville, New York.

The family ceremony was held in the First Baptist Church in Andover, New York. The Reverend Floyd Aldrich, pastor, officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father and mother, the bride was attired in a floor length white gown of her own design. She wore a lattice weave picture hat and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

The bride's only attendant, Mrs. Stanley Omsby of Andover, New York, wore a floor length gown of pink lace with matching head piece. She also carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Mr. Frank Hofflands of Bradford, Pa., served as best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Andover Grange Hall.

The couple are now residing at 64 1/2 North Main Street in Andover.

United Speedway News

This Saturday, June 7th, Holland International Speedway will present

Charles A. McAllister

Charles A. McAllister of Wellsville, died Tuesday, June 3, 1975 in Jones Memorial Hospital.

Born in the Town of West Union October 11, 1909, a son of Arch and Ellen Kelly McAllister.

He was a retired farm worker.

Surviving are two sons, Donald McAllister of Fox Ridge, Ark. Eugene McAllister of Homestead, Fla. Ronald McAllister of Olean, and Wayne McAllister of Hornell.

Two daughters, Rachel Jones of Wellsville and Mrs. Ray (Phyllis) Smith of Richmond, Va., 18 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren; a brother, John McAllister of Whitesville; and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at the Wildman Funeral Home, 301 Maple St., in Whitesville, Wednesday and Thursday, June 4 and 5, at 2 p. m. Burial services will be held at the Jones Memorial Cemetery, June 6, at 2 p. m. with the Rev. John O. Jones, pastor of the Whitesville Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in the Whitesville Cemetery.

Memorial Chapel, Tuesday with burial in Whitesville Cemetery, Andover, Tuesday afternoon.

sent its annual decal night giving away thousands of popular racing decals to the many fans and attendants. The race program will be composed of Late Model, Sportsman, Limited Sportsman and Challenger Divisions in the six race program of the 1975 season. Racing gets underway at 7:30 P. M.

Dick Flag of Eggertsville driving a 1975 Camaro continues to hold a tight edge in the Late Model Sportsman Division over Sonny Whitmeyer of Glenwood and Art Clark of West Seneca. Flag after winning the 1973 championship slipped to a disappointing 12th place in past season's competition. Flag captured the 36 lap Spring Gold Cup Championship on May 24th to win his first feature since 1973.

Under the Limited Sportsman Division we find Wyoming County well represented. Doug Pringle of Warsaw holds a 3 point edge over Doug Hewitt of Perry. Not far behind is Vance Richenburg of Bettsda and Paul Weber of Perry. The open wheel competition has been especially competitive with a number of different winners holding the victory circle.

Larry Havens of Smith Wales has taken over the number one spot in the Challenger Division. This race group made up of many new competitors has seen four different winners for five weeks. In feature competition, Havens drove a 442 Cam while his chief competition has been Ford driver, Jerry Riddle of Orchard Park.

Competition among the three divisions will continue this Saturday evening.