In the hope of a better understanding and more cooperation must year we would like to express our surprize and dissapposition at the lack of cooperation were we at fault? If so, we'd like to clear up this squation so that we can get off with a new start next year. We know that 5 to fel firemen were bery with their start next year. We know that be the fifteemen were been with their "Hot Sausage" stand, but are these men supposed to carry the whole department? The whole department is benefitting from the "Fruits of their Labor" and they
