

Nearly 3 million home canning lids roll off Ball Corporation's production lines in Muncie, Ind., each day of the week. Here they are packaged in dozens for shipment daily to distributors in all parts of the United States.

Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

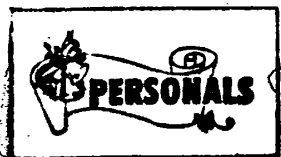

Some Chinaman, was it Confucius? is credited with saying that a "picture speaks 10,000 words" and, the above picture tells as much as was in the four-page letter that we received from the same can lid manufacturer!

For the "best" buys of the week, in the meat department — 3-oz. ground frays are on special for 39c a pound; ground chuck is still holding fast at 99c; corned beef brisket is $1.29; and boneless rolled chuck roast is only $1.39 per pound.

In the produce department, Bananas are 19c lb.; Pascal Celery is 29c a bunch; and white potatoes are 89c for a 10-pound bag.

In the grocery department, 8 o'clock coffee is going for $1.99 for a 3-lb. can; our value salad dressing is 69c a quart; and Philadelphia cream cheese is 39c for an 8-oz. pkg.

Well folks, guess that "wraps it up" for this week.
