Methodist-Presbyterian Parish Sunday School To Begin September 7th

The Sunday School of the Methodist-Presbyterian Parish will begin its term this Sunday, September 7th, at 9:45 A. M., with all classes meeting in the Presbyterian building.

Children in Nursery through the Eighth Grade meet for opening Worship in the Dining Room area, the Senior High (9 through 12th Grade) and Adults meeting in their assigned rooms. There are classes for all ages and all children, youth and adults are most welcome.

The Commission on Education will be presenting two different awards for attendance at the end of the Sunday School term, the last Sunday in May. One award will be for all students having perfect attendance, and another award will be for those having faithful attendance, which is a minimum of seven months perfect attendance out of the nine-months term. We especially invite all families who are not presently active in a Sunday School to become enrolled this Sunday, September 7th.
