

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Matison

Summer Home Setting for Matison-Jackson Garden Wedding

Betty Kay Jackson and Tommy L. Matison were united in marriage Saturday, September 6, 1975. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jackson of Andover, RD. 2, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Matison of RD. 2, Andover, New York.

The Rev. Glenn Bradaker, pastor of the Independent Church, performed the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in an out-door double-ring ceremony at the summer home of the bride's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Fulton, N.Y. Wellsville. Accordion music was rendered by Mrs. Linda Holley of Avon, N.Y.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, and escorted by her father, chose a hand crocheted gown of white orlon paradise yarn featuring scalloped neckline, with ruffled scalloped hemline and boyce pointed sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of the same yarn was trimmed with mini-pearls and scalloped lace. She carried a single white rose with blue tinted edges.

Barbara Sugden of Genesee, Pa., was maid-of-honor. She selected an A-line floor-length gown of rose knit with cameo trim, large white picture hat with light blue streamer ribbon and carried a single white rose with blue tinted petals.

The bridesmaids were Brenda Sherwood, sister of the bride of Andover, N.Y., and Penny Densmore, sister of the groom, also of Andover, N.Y. They were attired in identical gowns styled as the maid-of-honor only in blue and mint green and wore large white picture hats with light blue streamer ribbon and carried a single white rose with light blue tinted petals.

Carolyn Wiess, niece of the groom from Wellsville, N.Y., wore a flowered yellow and blue permanent press long dress with matching bag and bonnet and carried a single white rose with blue tinted petals.

Roger Waters, nephew of the bride was ring-bearer.

David Freeland of Canisteo, N.Y., was best man. Ushers were Brian Weiss and Carl Densmore, brothers-in-law of the groom.

A reception and buffet luncheon for approximately 150 guests was held at the Andover Rod & Gun Club following the ceremony with Gail Updyke, cousin of the bride and Kimberly Waters, sister of the bride as hostesses.

For a wedding trip through southern Pennsylvania and West Virginia the bride selected a three-piece green outfit.

Guests were present from Greenwood, Wellsville, Baldwinsville, Canisteo, New York City, Wayland, Syracuse, Rochester, Bolivar, Little March, Pa., Florida and Andover.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Andover Central School and also a graduate of Board of Occupational Cooperative Education in Belmont in Food Service. The groom is also a graduate of

Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

Well Folks, now that we have had a hard frost, perhaps it will warm up and we can go back to summer weather for a while.

In the Grocery business when seasons change — prices on produce and meat change. In the Meat Department this week, Fry-ing Chickens are special at 49c a pound; Chuck Roast is 89c per lb.; and Ground Chuck is 99c; with Beef Liver holding steady at 69c per lb.

In the Grocery Department Peter Pan Peanut Butter is 69c for a 1-lb. 2-oz. jar; Gold Medal Flour is 69c for a 5 lb. bag; Instant Maxwell House Coffee $1.99 for a 10-oz. jar; and Strachmann's Bread is 3 — 1 lb. 4-oz. loaves for a $1.00.

Guess that "bags it up" for this week so, so long.

Harvest Time

Bible Baptist Church kicks off Fall Harvest time Sunday School Campaign, September 14th - October 19th.

The Fall Harvest time effort concludes with a Fall Festival Party at the Andover Grange October 24th at 7:00 P. M. Any and all are invited. There will be a hay ride to conclude the evening.

The most exciting part of this Sunday school effort is the part where Pastor Hall gets a pie in the face. To see Pastor Hall get it, the people need your help, that is our goal is 60 in Sunday School and he'll get that PIE in the face. Come help and have a part!
