Open House Set To Mark 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Ray of R.D. 1, Osceola-Woodhull Road, Osceola, Pennsylvania will observe their 50th Wedding Anniversary with an open house, Sunday, November 2, 1975 from 1 to 5 p. m., at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Abel Peers, Osceola-Woodhull Road, County Route 99.

Francis Ray and the former Lottie Slocum were married November 4, 1925 at Andover, New York, with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reisman as witnesses.

The couple have five daughters and one son: Mrs. Lewis (Bernice) Allen of Corning, Mrs. Keith (Veronica) Clayton of Springwater, Mrs. Robert (Lucy) Norton of Whitesville, Mrs. Abel (Mary) Peers of Osceola, Pa., Mrs. Donald (Geraldine) Armbruster of Woodhull and Francis T. Ray of Albion, N. Y. There are 25 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Ray is a retired self-employed carpenter and farmer and Mrs. Ray is a former employee of Mapes Woodworking Company of Whitesville, N. Y.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to the Open House. Gifts should be omitted, however, as a money tree is being planned.

Mead-Krake

Youndase Furgison Krake and Raymond Frank Mead were united in marriage, Saturday, August 16, 1975 at Athens, Pa.

The Rev. Richard Plott of the Presbyterian Church of Waverly, N. Y., performed the double-ring ceremony at an out-door wedding before their immediate families.

Their only attendants were her two small daughters, Heather Marie Krake as flower girl and Tami Sue Krake, ringbearer. The bridal party were dressed in long-old fashioned dresses of printed demity with matching bonnets and bags.

After a short honeymoon, the couple returned to Ogdensburg. Mrs. Mead is an Operating Nurse in the A. Barton Hepburn Hospital and Mr. Mead is a Field Representative for Dairyalea in that area.

Appreciation

Words can't express my gratitude for your concern during my recent illness and surgery at Saint Joseph's. Many thanks to all who sent get-well wishes, telephone calls, remembering me in their prayers and flowers at the hospital and also since I returned home.

Grocery Gems & Goodies

by Phil Fitch

Hello again! Last week we had hardly finished commenting on the beautiful "Indian Summer" type of weather and Bang! It got cold in a hurry. However, after it cleared up the first of this week we had a few more nice days — with the promise of more.

In the meat specials for this week, Armour Star Hot Dogs are only 99c for a 10 lb. bag; N. Y. State Cabbage is cheap at 10c a lb.; and Florida Red or White Grapefruit is 89c for a 5 lb. bag.

In the grocery department, all Ragù Spaghetti Sauces are 87c a quart; Muellers Spaghetti is 98c for a 3-lb. pkg.; and Duncan Hines cake mixes are only 57c for a 1-lb. 3-oz. pkg.

Well, that "wraps it up" so. Have a Happy Weekend!

Thanks

The October Committee of the United Methodist Women wish to thank all those who worked at our rummage sale, contributed goods or money, and patronized the sale making it a successful project. It was greatly appreciated.
