Girls Soccer

as reported to Karen Hall

On Tuesday, the girls soccer season ended with a defeat handed them by Hammondsport 2-0.

Looking back over the season the girls can be assured that it has been the best one ever. Each year the caliber of competition has gotten better and better and Andover has improved with it. No longer do we look for our school at the bottom of the standings. Last year we were eliminated in the play-offs — this year we advanced to the sectionals.

The future looks most encouraging since we lose only one senior from the squad, Diane Bliss. The Freshmen Class has been most supporting and a good number of girls have "stuck out" the season and gained experience to be tested next year. They are: Pamela Briggs, Denise Grossman, Cheri Halsey, Lisa Howland, Marcelle Mead, Janet Monroe, Tracy Richardson, Debra Wallace and Glenna Weber.

The nucleus of the team rests in the Junior and Sophomore Classes — Beth Polmateer, Cherie Haskins, Brenda Vosburg, Marcy Jackson, Teresa Joyce, Janet Geffers, and Karen Hall.

Over all the season has shown great team effort, enthusiasm and a desire to get even better.

Cub News

by Karen Joyce

In Cub action Wednesday night, October 29, the Braves upset the Celtics by a score of 34-23. EVERY person on the Braves scored at least two points. Just the opposite for the Celtics. School is okay,
Only when we can play,
It is fun,
When we have a hot dog on a bun.

The Clergy Review

Rev. Jeffrey A. Mackey, Pastor
The Christian & Missionary Alliance

Dean, Trinity Bible Institute
COMMENTARY ON RIGHT AND WRONG

Jesus Christ Himself claimed, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." Such a claim can only be made by God Himself. It was.

However, the tendency of our present day culture, and those cultures surrounding ours, say that there is no such thing as absolute truth, no absolute way, no absolute right and /or wrong way of life. Such deception is prevalent in all types of culture, and in every class of each culture.

A few years ago, when we buried God with the "God is dead" theology, we left open a vast abyss allowing for relative morals, and situation ethics to multiply, divide, and flourish. The absolutes of the Word of God; the Bible, and the infinitely perfect example of the person of Jesus Christ, have been drowned in the flood of permissiveness and relative morals. The thinking of present day man in general is that right and wrong are always relative. How deceived we have become.

Nonetheless, there is NOTHING relative about Jesus Christ and the Bible. He is, and it is, "TRUE TRUTH!"

We very readily participate in the developing cop-out, by quoting the Scripture, "Judge not lest ye be judged," but Christ Himself commanded "Judge a righteous judgement."

God's absolute standard cannot, and will not be made relative! His abounding command "This is the way, WALK YE IN IT!" resounds throughout the ages, available for all to hear.

Is there a definitive answer for those questioning the rightness or wrongness of mercy-killing (euthanasia), abortion, murder, drugs, capital punishment, alcohol, permissive sex? THERE IS AND IT IS UNQUESTIONABLE!

CROSS COUNTRY

by Terry McCormick

Last Thursday it was the end of the regular season with the Trophy Race. It was a hard fought race, with John Davis bringing home the only Trophy with his ninth place finish. Bill Grossman finished 17, followed by Russ Godown 20 Brian Weber 21. Rob Davis also got a ribbon for the seventh race.

On Saturday past, the Cross Country Sectionals were held on the Alfred-Almond course. Andover ran in the B-C Race with well over 200 people. John Davis was our first across the line in 45th and Brett Grossman 77th. It was a fine effort by the whole team.

Yearbook News

by Lori Stein

October 29 started out as a normal, routine school day. No actually it didn't. It started out in chaos, and remained the same throughout the day. You see, every ten minutes there were announcements requesting different organizations and class pictures to be taken. The Yearbook Staff members were busy all day taking pictures. Gym classes were constantly being interrupted to make room for assembling students. The members made a supreme effort to keep on schedule; and did, gaining compliments from teachers. Keep your eyes peeled for surprise flashes!
