

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Robert Grumley, 74, of Rexville, died Saturday in St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, where he had been a patient for two days.

Mr. Grumley was born in Rexville, where he had lived most of his life. He operated Grumley's General Store in Rexville for 48 years. He closed the store with an auction in 1974 when he retired. He was a communicant of St. Mary's Church in Rexville.

He is survived by his wife Susan O'Hara Grumley, two sons, Leo J. of Rexville and Dale of M. H. two sisters, Mrs. Katherine McAndrews of Hornell and Mrs. Gordon Henry of Syracuse; one brother, Michael of Elmira.

The family received friends at the H. P. Smith Funeral Home in Canisteo, Sunday and Monday with evening prayers Monday at 9 p. m. A prayer service was held Tuesday at 9:45 a. m., followed by a Mass of Christian burial at St. Mary's Church in Rexville at 10:30 a. m. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery in Rexville.

Bill O'Hargan, a student at Ithaca College, Ithaca, came last Friday to spend Thanksgiving week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Hargan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rollins and Mrs. Roger Williamson attended the wedding of Miss Nancy Dill and Mr. Graves at the Andover United Methodist Church last Saturday, Nov. 15. The ladies also attended the reception at the Ponce de Leon.

Mrs. Angie Eldridge of the Christian Hollow Road entered the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, Saturday.

Mrs. Dudley Box of Painted Post spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rollins. Her mother has been sick since Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Box are planning to fly to Germany Friday to visit their son in service there.

The Senior Citizens will meet at the United Methodist Church Wednesday, December 3. A turkey dinner will be served by hostesses Sarah Teribury, Helen Russell, Rachael Wallace and Pauline Teator. It was decided to have a $1.00 gift exchange and Mamie Coleman will be in charge of gifts.

West Greenwood Grange is having a Community Christmas Party at the Hall Saturday, December 6. Mrs. Mason Burdick is chairman of the Pot Luck Dinner to be held at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a tree and gifts for the children, but no adult exchange.

Cafeteria Menus at Greenwood Central School week of November 24-28:

MONDAY—Chicken with Gravy on Biscuit, buttered Green Beans, Rolls, Jello with Topping, choc or white Milk

TUESDAY — Soup, Assorted Sandwiches, Fruit, Cake, choc or white Milk

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday—No school for the Thanksgiving Vacation.

The Greenwood Ambulance was out twice Monday to take Herman Guild who is a medical patient in the intensive care unit. The second trip was for a hunter who had a heart attack.

Joseph Fitzpatrick entered St. James Mercy Hospital Monday night as a medical patient.

Mrs. Florence Wilson is still in the intensive care unit at St. James Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. Tera Allen of Rexville had eye surgery at the Bethesda Hospital.

Michael Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Williamson, entered Jones Memorial Hospital, Wellsville, Monday with eye infection.

Delos Baker returned to the Ford Rest Home, Monday from the St. James Mercy Hospital where he was a patient for several days.

Mrs. Clair Kernan returned home from the Bethesda Hospital Monday where she was a medical patient for several days.

Mrs. Blanche Wallace was transferred Thursday from the St. James Mercy Hospital to the Hornell Nursing Home. She had been a patient at St. James for several months.

Mrs. Mildred Clark left the St. James Mercy Hospital, Monday, and went to the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bettinger in Canisteo. Mrs. Florence Moore visited her sister, Mrs. Clark at the Bettinger home Tuesday.

Brian Hoyt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hoyt, entered the Bethesda Hospital, Hornell, Friday. He fell from the monkey bars at school and was taken to the hospital by ambulance. He had a concussion and was able to come home Saturday.

It was reported that St. Mary's Church in Rexville, netted $311 from the Election Day Dinner.

The United Methodist Women met at the Church Social Hall Thursday afternoon. It was reported that the Agway dinner netted $279. It was voted to give $20 to the District over our pledge. The Thanks offering envelopes were brought in. Mrs. Lillian Warriner recently returned from Arizona, was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Marion Hussey gave the program on Amos The Prophet. The December meeting will be at one o'clock Dec. 18. Cheer Boxes will be packed for shut-ins, bring supplies and a covered box. Hostesses Harriet Redmond and Marian Albaugh served refreshments to twelve.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship held a Bake Sale at the Town Hall Saturday morning. The advisor, Mrs. Max Hoyt, was in charge, with many youth to help, netting $40.

The Methodist Sunday School brought a Thanksgiving offering Sunday to send to Miss Eleanor Acker Missionary with the Mid Baptist Mission at Dana, Kentucky. It is to help with her Christmas program.

Members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints held a family Thanksgiving Dinner and program at the Church dining room Wednesday evening, Nov. 26. Mrs. Terry Smith was chairman.

The Allegany-Steuben Holstein Club meeting was held Tuesday at the Club Barn in South Canisteo. Francis Meehan of Rexville and Alton Dunlop of Cuba were elected Directors for three years. Mr. Meehan who is Director of the New York Holstein-Friesian Association, said he had attended three State Meetings and seven Executive Meetings during the year. Paul Harkenrider of Rexville reported on the Black and White Show in August. He said 111 head of cattle was exhibited. The Club is sponsoring a dinner-dance Nov. 29 at the American Legion in Hornell. The first Club Scholarship will be awarded to a Junior Holstein Member. Awards will be made to several 4-H Members from the two counties.

Ed Thering of Lyndonville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Rogers and Jerome last Sunday and Monday to hunt deer the first day. Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Thering and her sister, Lisa of Lyndonville, came so Ed could hunt Saturday then they went home that night.

Larry Wallace and a friend from Lima came for the first day of hunting Monday and visited his mother, Mrs. Vivian Wallace. David Wallace took his brother, Richard to Lima, Friday to spend the weekend with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wallace.

Francis Acker and Mrs. Sarah Teribury and Mrs. Helen Russell of Jasper from the Senior Citizens, attended the County Directors Meeting of SCEOP, Tuesday in Bath.

Rodney Cornell went to Rochester, Tuesday to investigate entering RBI.

40 YEARS AGO

November 15, 1935

J. H. Backus &amp; Son, Publishers

At the Grange meeting last week Officers for 1936 were elected: Victor Perkins, Master; Earl Schoonover, Overseer; Hervey Thorne, Lecturer; Clifford Green, Steward; Francis Mead, Assistant Steward; Dewey Northrup Sr., Treasurer; Kaneta Perkins, Secretary; Mrs. Mizpah Greene, Chaplain; Mrs. Henry Livermore, Ceres; Mrs. Howard Perry, Pomona; Mrs. Earl Schoonover, Flora; Laddy Assistant Steward; Jessamine Briggs, Matron; Mrs. Margaret Northrup; Pianist, Mrs. Mattie Robinson; Assistant Pianist, Gertrude Schoonover; Insurance Director, Charles Robinson; Executive Committee, H. E. Robinson for 3 years; Installing Officer, Charles Nevol; and Alternate Charles Robinson. The Juvenile Grange elected the following Officers: Master, Louis Dodge; Overseer, Bernadine Briggs; Lecturer, Jane Burdick; Steward, Lorene Gee; Assistant Steward, Kathleen Howland; Chaplain, Doris Mead; Treasurer, Dorothy Schoonover; Secretary, Jean Northrup; Gate Keeper, Dewey Northrup, Jr.; Ceres, Marjorie Bergman; Pomona, Emily Greene; Flora, Geraldine Perry; Lady Asst. Eleanor Northrup; Flag Bearer, Dorothy Lever. The Master appointed the following committees: Service & Hospitality, Vivian Connor, 1 year, Patricia Lynch 2 years and Florence Dodge 3 years; Executive Com. Veronica Lynch one year, Charles Nevol, two years and Kenneth Cook 3 years.

Merritt Eugene Tucker died at his home in Wellsville, November 9. He was born in Andover May 27, 1869 a son of William and Frances Middaugh Tucker. He was married twice, first to Amy Sternberg, deceased and Edith Her-

Mrs. Val Fenti of Honeye Falls came Friday to take her mother, Mrs. Florence Moore home with her. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Val Fenti and two children and Mrs. Moore left for Marion, N. C., to spend Thanksgiving week with their sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baker and family. They will start home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sampson, Miss Karen Sampson and Lisa of Niagara Falls are spending the Thanksgiving week with his sister Mrs. Bernice Osmin. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sampson of Niagara Falls will spend sometime and they will be guests Thanksgiving Day of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Puffer at Alfred.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Dwight Young of Valley Stream, came Monday and were guests of his sister, Miss Grace Young until Wednesday to help close her home for the winter. Wednesday they went to Wilmington, Del. for Thanksgiving with a sister of Mrs. Young. Miss Grace Young will be with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Young for December.

There have been as many deer hunters about town this year as usual. From all reports many deer were taken both by local hunters and others. Town Clerk, Marjorie York reported as of Monday, she had sold 316 Deer Licenses. She sent for an extra book of licenses. She sold 26 non-resident and 20 archery licenses.

Last Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey and Mrs. Daniel attended the movie at the Andover Methodist Church.

Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Roger York of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas York and son of Rochester, came and hunted with their father, Douglas York, Monday. Mrs. Thomas York and son stayed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Druetta until Thursday.

Miss Vicki Losey, who is employed in Cerning, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Losey of West Union and also came for Thanksgiving.

worth who survives with 1 brother George of Stannards and one sister, Mrs. Ella Howland of Alloway, Okla. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wellsville.

Miss Maude Estella Wildman of Andover and Louis Welhonic of Wellsville were married November 2.

Sheridan Witter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Witter of Andover and Isabelle McGovern of Buffalo were married October 26.

Thomas M. Lynch American Legion and Auxiliary were well represented in Wellsville Monday at the Armistice Day Celebration. Fay Boyd, Commander of the Allegany County American Legion and Mrs. Genevieve Backus, County Chairman of the Auxiliary were formally introduced from the speakers platform. An outstanding feature of the day's program was the dedicating of the beautiful Colorado Blue Spruce Tree in Memorial Park and a granite Monument beside it bearing the inscription "This Tree Planted in Memory of Everett VanNostrand 1840-1935."

The Andover-Wellsville group of Rural Teachers met today with Mrs. Thelma Lewis on Voorhees Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stearns welcome a daughter, Mary Martha at their home on Water Street November 7.

The November Committee of the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will serve a Two Cent Supper at the Church next Monday night.

Among those who took part in the program given last Thursday at the Masonic Temple were the following Second Grade pupils who gave a group of songs and recitations: Barbara Lehman, Patricia Joyce, Ruth Hardy, Norma Steadman, Geraldine Lynch, Donald Northrup, Victor Clark, James Backus and Francis Houghtaling. The High School group was also represented by Regina Lynch.

Mrs. Lottie Cheesman, age 75, died at the Bethesda Hospital, November 9. She was a former resident of Greenwood. Funeral services were held at the home of her brother at Lawrenceville, Pa., on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Linford Wallace are parents of a son born Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent McCormick of Greenwood.

More than 100 friends of Miss Muriel Church of Voorhees Hill, whose marriage to Chris Kruger of Wellsville will take place soon, gave her a shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Church, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Rachel Williams of Davis Hill, returned home with Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Cook of Endicott for a visit and will visit her son and family, Elwood Williams at Hartford Mills, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum of Davis Hill received word from Mrs. Martha Carter of California, that her husband, Sidney Carter died Nov. 6 at their home with spinal meningitis after a 48 hour illness.

Mrs. George Robinson of Alfred spent Tuesday guest of her niece, Mrs. Carroll Ruger.

Miss Mary Cocoman of Buffalo visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. James Baker from Saturday to Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church and daughters, Doris and Roberta were guests of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Church of Allentown, Pa., and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nobles at Towanda, Pa., over the weekend.

30 YEARS AGO

November 8, 1945

Claire C. Backus, Publisher

The entire Republican Ticket was successful in Andover this year. Reginald J. Sootheran for Supervisor; Harry Kemp for Justice of Peace; and Hervey Thorne for Assessor for two years. The other Officers were unopposed: E. S. Potter, Town Clerk; George Gath, Superintendent of Highways; Reta K. Stearns, Collector; George Baker, Assessor four years; Ila Snyder, School Director; and Howard Burdick, Councilman.

Sadie Cleveland, daughter of

S. H. Cleveland of Wellsville formerly of Andover, and Byron Shanahan of Wellsville were married November 5.

Miss Marion Stevens, daughter of Mrs. Anna Stevens and Charles Holt, Jr., Fireman 1st Class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holt of Andover, were married in San Diego, California, November 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Burns have purchased the Leonard Snyder farm in Elm Valley and will move there from Shongo, December 1. Henry Will has purchased the Albert Rogers' home on Main Street, taking possession in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will move to their home on Pleasant Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Norris will move from the Rogers home to the Joseph Greenan resident on Second Street.

Miss Mary Teresa Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burns and Robert Paul McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCormick, were married at the Blessed Sacrament Church, November 3 by Rev. Charles Keller.

The Exchange Club Annual Halloween Party proved as successful this year as in former years with the traditional parade, bonfire at the Athletic Field and refreshments. The music was furnished by the Andover Central School Band and 20 prizes were awarded by the committee for costumes.

According to word received here Carl "Mike" Honegger is now on his way to the States from India.

Captain E. Claire Greene has been placed on the inactive list and is now home in Bridgeport, N. J. Captain Greene visited his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Greene in Andover last week, returning home Friday.

Flight Officer Franklin Nye has received his discharge from the Air Force and with Mrs. Nye are touring the South, before returning home.

Clare L. Jackson Bosn's Mate Second Class received his discharge from the Navy at Sampson, Sunday and is now home after serving in the Pacific Area.

Sgt. Alvin "Red" Hoover was discharged from the Army at Richmond, Va., Oct. 26 after 3 years and 6 months service and is now home.

Corporal Gerald Hyland received his discharge from the Army at Sioux Falls, S. D., October 29. He arrived in Andover Monday after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Fulkerson enroute. "Jerry" had served 3 years and 8 months, most of this in the European Theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Padden of Friendship were recent guests of his sister, Mrs. John Cannon and family and other Andover relatives. Mr. Padden has recently returned from Tokyo Bay and has received his honorable discharge from the Navy.

Staff Sgt. William Dugan arrived home Tuesday evening having been discharged from the Army after 37 months service, 25 months overseas duty the greater part of which was in China.

Pvt. Charles J. Nevol, Jr., arrived home last Friday on a 15-day delay enroute from Fort Blanding, Florida to Camp Pickett, Virginia.

Pvt. Louis J. Dodge has arrived in Northern Italy.

Mrs. Robert Bullard died at the Jones Memorial Hospital, Nov. 3. Viola May was born May 8, 1869 in Grand Valley, Pa., the daughter of Cornelius and Mary Jane Winnie Dolson. On April 19, 1888 she married Robert Bullard and for several years lived in Friendship before moving to Andover. Besides her husband, she is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Melvin Monroe of Rexford, Pa., and Mrs. David Kohn of Port Allegany, Pa. Burial was in Maple Grove Cemetery, Friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mead and family of Elm Valley were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Pearl Mesler, Sunday.

PFC and Mrs. Oliver A. Freeland of Camp Blanding, Florida, spent Friday night and Saturday guests at the home of his brother Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freeland Jr., and visited other relatives.

(Continued on Page 4)

THE ANDOVER NEWS

Published Weekly by: The News Printing House, Andover, N. Y.
Jeanne Backus Allen and Ralph A. Allen, Owners, Andover, N. Y.
Entered as Second Class Mail Matter at the Post Office at Andover, N. Y., 11806, under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.
Subscription Price: $5.00 per year