

Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Graves

Nancy R. Dilts and Karl E. Graves Exchange Wedding Vows

The Andover United Methodist Church was the setting for the 1 p. m. wedding of Miss Nancy Ruth Dilts and Karl Earl Graves on Saturday, November 15, 1975.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dilts of Main Street, Greenwood, N. Y., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Graves of Hill Street, Andover, N. Y.

The Rev. Ray Albaugh performed the double-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with pedestal arrangements of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Doris Godwon was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected a formal imported sata-peau gown. The Victorian neckline, lantern sleeves and bodice were all trimmed with imported Chantilly lace. A sheer insert complemented the top of the bodice, and was outlined with satin ribbon inserted through the lace. The A-line skirt swept into a chapel-length train and was bordered with Chantilly lace. Her imported silk illusion tiered veil was attached to a Camelot lace headpiece with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white daisies, pink rosebuds, and baby's breath.

Miss Patsy J. Dilts of Fayetteville, Ark., served as maid-of-honor for her aunt. Bridesmaids were Miss Travy J. Dilts and Miss Alison J. Dilts, both of Watkins Glen and also nieces of the bride.

The attendants were identically dressed in pink formal gowns with a Victorian neckline, long full sleeves with ruffles, and an Empire waistline with sash tie accenting the back of the gown. They carried bouquets of pink daisies, red sweetheart roses and baby's breath. They also wore matching headpieces of pink daisies and baby's breath.

Clayton A. Graves of Franklinville, N. Y., was best man for his brother. Ushers were: Donald J. Pitts from Randolph, N. Y., and T. Joseph Barozini of Wellsville, N. Y.

A reception for about 80 guests was held at the Ponce de Leon Restaurant in Hornell.

After a wedding trip to Puerto Rico, the couple are residing on Dixie Street in Andover.

The bride is a graduate of Spring Valley High School and Rockland Community College. She is the owner of N & R Country Casuals in Andover.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Andover Central School, Alfred State College and Alfred University. He is a clerk in the office of the Allegany County Clerk in Belmont, N. Y.

Appreciation

I wish to thank anyone who had anything to do with making the Bartz-Reil-Conde Scholarship available, which I won at graduation last June, and recently received.

It is greatly appreciated and is considerable help to me at X-Ray School at St. James Hospital in Hornell, N. Y., which I am attending.

Thank you,
Cecilia Gavin

Legal Notice

Notice To Harborers Or Owners Of Dogs

Dog Licenses are due on or before January 1, 1976. They may be obtained at the Town Clerk's Office.

The law requires that dogs be licensed by January 1. Failure to obtain a license subjects the owner to a penalty of $10.00 and costs and the dog is liable to seizure.

The Commissioner of Health has issued an order requiring all dogs six months of age or over in the County to be vaccinated to prevent rabies. Therefore an applicant for a dog license must present to the Clerk a certificate certified by a duly licensed veterinarian showing that the dog has been so vaccinated.

To be acceptable, the certificate presented must show that modified live virus vaccine was used within four years immediately preceding the application date, or that killed vaccine of brain tissue or brain tissue origin was used within the year immediately preceding the application date.

If your application is mailed to the Clerk, the vaccination certificate must accompany your application and check.

GLADYS FOX,
Town Clerk
